

Shows at 7 & 9

CAPITOL

HUDSON
2172

THEATRE

Yonge and Castlefield

Saturday
Matinee
at 2.30

Thursday, Nov. 1st, Friday, Nov. 2nd, Saturday, Nov. 3rd

THE 3rd

COLLEEN MOORE

Collegians

Oh Kay!

A First National Picture

Tarzan the Mighty

Friday Night and Saturday
Matinee Only

Topics and Fables

ON THE STAGE - BOB VALENTINE and BROTHER COMEDY ACT

Monday, Nov. 5th Tuesday, Nov. 6th Wednesday, Nov. 7th

GRETA GARBO in The Mysterious LADY

with CONRAD NAGEL

THE MAILED FIST REACHING OUT IN THE BLACK-
NESS OF MILITARY INTRIGUE—HEARTS THAT FOUND EACH OTHER ON THE NO MAN'S LAND
OF SPIES—AND HOW THEY HATED TO LOVE.

COMEDY Troubles Galore
CAPITOL NEWS

And the New Laugh Riot

Victoria Square

Mr. and Mrs. William Morton, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Morton and their son Arnold motored from Saskatchewan, arriving here on Friday last. They report a good road with the exception of a strip on the Ferguson Highway near North Bay, when they had to be towed through deep water.

Mr. Chas. Hart had the misfortune to have his radiator on his tractor freeze up and burst while sitting on the bridge at the barn one day this week. This is an unusual thing so early in the season.

Mr. Haig, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Boynton attended a meeting of the executive of Markham Township Religious Educational Council at the home of Mr. James Ley, Markham on Monday night.

Mr. C. Moynihan has purchased a fifty acre farm east of Aurora which he expects to occupy about the middle of the month.

Mrs. James Casey, of Stouffville, spent part of the week with Mrs. Homer Wilson.

Mrs. Peter Baker was remembered by many of her friends this week, she receiving a postal shower on her ninety-fourth birthday.

Mr. Edgar Wall, of Richmond Hill, gave an interesting address at the Young People's Society last Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Baker and Messrs Lorne and Murray Baker spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Louis Nichols.

Mrs. John Thompson, of Crediton, is visiting with friends here. She visited her friends in the County of Simcoe last week.

Turnips are being harvested this week. The crop is an exceptionally good one, and as the ground is fairly dry they are going into the cellar in excellent shape. Boston Bros. had an enormous crop. After filling their root cellar and every available space in the stable they had to pit many loads.

Mr. Sydney Edgell, of Ottawa, is spending the week with his friends here.

REEVE J. LUNAU

Elected President of the Richmond Hill Curling Club at the annual meeting held Monday night.

Curlers Held Annual Meeting

The Curlers' meeting on Monday, October 29 at "Dinty Moore's" was marked by increased enthusiasm which is prophetic of a most successful year. The apartments of the club were filled to repletion.

From the numerous nominees for the various offices the following were elected to the positions of honour and of control. Many of the elections proving to be close contests.

President, Reeve Lunau; Vice-President, F. Mansbridge; Secretary-Treasurer, Claude Wright; Committee of management; H. Thomson, J. McLean, G. Moodie; Ice Committee, W. Capell, A. E. Glass, W. Benson; Games committee, W. Trench, H. Thomson, E. T. Stephens, N. J. Glass.

Instructions were given to the games committee to confer with Curling Clubs of neighbouring places with regard to arranging for home-and-home games throughout the winter.

Messrs Herrington, Savage, Stephens, and McLean were appointed committee to interview the young men of the village with the purpose of awakening in them an interest in curling.

The regular meetings of the club will be held on the second Monday of each month during the season at 'Dinty Moore's.'

The club extend a hearty invitation to all citizens of the village to visit 'Dinty Moore's' and will extend a glad welcome to new members. It is felt that there are many citizens who do not appreciate the advantages offered by the club or they would join and enter into congenial comradeship with the good fellows of the curling club and participate in the transcendent pleasures of the 'King of Sports.'

W. C. T. U. EDUCATION CONTEST

The executive of York and Peel Counties Women's Christian Temperance Union met at the home of Mrs. A. E. Plewman to arrange for the "Ocean to Ocean wave of Temperance Education" contest. This contest is being held by the Dominion W. C. T. U. in co-operation with the Northern Messenger. Valuable prizes are being offered by Dougall Bros., The Dominion W. C. T. U., The Provincial W. C. T. U., in addition the county executive voted $25. for 1st, 2nd and 3rd prizes in junior and senior groups and books for ten next highest in each group. Any child wishing to enter the contest may communicate with Mrs. A. L. Phipps or Mrs. (Dr.) Wilson. Further announcement regarding the contest will appear in the press from time to time.

PLOWING MATCH

THE ANNUAL PLOWING MATCH OF THE KING AND VAUGHAN PLOWMEN'S ASSOCIATION WILL BE HELD TO-MORROW, (FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2nd,) AT THE FARM OF CAMERON WALKINGTON, KING TOWNSHIP.

In Massachusetts Dorothy Wind married Alfred Storms. Now let them look out for squalls.

BEDFORD THEATRE

THE HOME OF HIGH CLASS ENTERTAINMENT
YONGE AND GLEN FOREST
SATURDAY MATINEE AT 2.30 P.M. EVENINGS 7 AND 9 P.M.

Thursday, Friday, Saturday, November 1, 2, 3

JOE WOODS AND HIS VILLAGE CUT UPS

SCREAMINGLY FUNNY FARCE

COMEDY "SCARED SILLY"
King of the Jungle No. VII.
NEWS EVENTS

Mon., Tues., Wed'y, November 5, 6, 7

BEBE DANIELS

HOT NEWS

In her latest Comedy-Drama with more action, more thrills than ever before.

Comedy "Soup To Nuts"
NEWS EVENTS

STAGE
Attraction Nora Griffith
DANCING GIRLS

BUTTONVILLE

BUTTONVILLE SCHOOL REPORT

Sr. IV—Dorothy Clark 79%, Elizabeth Clark 79%, Jessie Burr 69%, Fern Firth 65%, Della Burr 60%, Sadie McGimpsey 57%.

Sr. III—Addie Allen 73%, Doris Walton 72%, Helen Fierheller (absent), Aubrey Gohn (absent), Jim Clark (absent).

Jr. III—Harry McGimpsey 74%, Frank French 57%, Aleatha Thompson 56%, Mae Tennyson 52%, William Hood 52%, Ruby Firth 44%, Willie Allen 42%, Erwin Gohn 41%.

Jr. II—Rhea McQuay.

Sr. I—Lloyd Allen.

Sr. Pr.—James Hood, Hazel Cox. Jr. Pr.—Bennie Bullock, Ashton Calvert, Russell Cox, Mervin Firth.

Miss Katherine Craig spent Sunday under the parental roof.

The hunters are preparing for their trip on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James McQuay returned from their honeymoon Saturday evening. They were heartily welcomed by the boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Meyer and son Gordon had tea with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Walton on Wednesday evening.

The W. M. S. Thank-Offering supper and concert on Monday evening was a decided success. The dialogues portraying Missionary life given by Mr. and Mrs. Shauntz of Stouffville delighted the audience. The listeners were also favored by a duet from Misses Doris Walton and Mae Tennyson.

Mr. Henry Hooper and Miss Cora Hooper spent Sunday with friends in Thornhill.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Meyer is moving to Toronto on Saturday. Many happy returns of the day Charlie.

Oak Ridges

The regular monthly meeting of the Oak Ridges Branch of the Women's Institute will be held at the residence of Mrs. George Thompson, Temperanceville, on Wednesday, November 7th, at 2.30 p. m. A Thanksgiving collection is to be taken in answer to the Roll Call. It is hoped that every member will bring a friend.

A most interesting man called on dad & last night—Mr. Hernandez of Cuba. He was enthused over the splendid quality of cigars from Austin's of course!

AUSTIN'S Drug Store
RICHMOND HILL, ONT
PHONE 33

BOARD OF TRADE MEETING ON WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 7th

"Municipal Night" Will Be Featured By An Open Discussion on Municipal Subjects—Local Assessment Will Be Considered.

As the regular meeting of the Richmond Hill Board of Trade would come on the second Monday of the month, which this month happens to be Thanksgiving Day, the November meeting will be held in the council chamber, on WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 7th at 8 p. m.

According to reports the membership committee will have a very gratifying account to give of their campaign. Almost one hundred members have been enrolled so far and it is hoped that every one and as many more as possible will be in attendance at the November meeting. There will be many important items of business to discuss including the recommendation of the appointment of a permanent Industrial Commission for the Town. The Industrial development of the district should be of vital concern to every resident and it is hoped by proper organization to conduct an efficient and extensive campaign to secure industries for the municipality.

The executive have arranged an attractive tentative program for the coming months and all that is needed is the active co-operation of every member to make the Richmond Hill Board of Trade a very live issue in the life and development of the community.

Owing to the nearness of Municipal elections and the natural interest at this season taken in things "municipal" the program for next Wed'y. will be known as "MUNICIPAL NIGHT." The Board aims to stimulate interest in all municipal affairs and with this in view the topics for the next meeting have been chosen. There will be an open discussion led by different members on the following subjects:

1 Richmond Hill Assessment; 2 How to create community interest in the annual nomination meeting and in the Municipal Elections. Other matters pertaining to the business and general improvement of local conditions will be considered. Reserve the date, Wednesday next, November 7th in the Council Chamber at 8 o'clock.

FOWL SUPPER AND ENTERTAINMENT

A hot fowl supper and entertainment will be held in the United church, Richmond Hill on WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 7 under the auspices of the Ladies Aid. A fowl supper will be served from 5.30 until all are served after which there will be a high class entertainment. Among the artists who will take part are; Miss Queenie McGillis contralto soloist the Toronto Conservatory Quartette, Miss Shiprah Goldstick, nine year old pianist, Mr. William Buck, violinist, Miss Hazel Moore, elocutionist and Mr. Adelmo Melleci, organist. Admission 75 cents, children under 12, 35 cents.

HOCKEY

A MEETING OF ALL INTERESTED IN HOCKEY WILL BE HELD IN THE COUNCIL CHAMBER NEXT TUESDAY EVENING AT 8 P. M. WHEN OFFICERS FOR THE YEAR WILL BE ELECTED AND PLANS MADE FOR THE COMING SEASON. ALL PLAYERS AND FANS WHO WOULD LIKE TO SEE A GOOD HOCKEY TEAM HERE ARE URGED TO ATTEND.

The Executive

McLaughlin-Buick

W.G. BALBOCK LIMITED

Pontiac

A GOOD PLACE TO BUY A USED CAR