VILLAGE COUNCIL

Richmond Hill council will meet in regular session in the Clerk's Office, next Monday evening at 8 p.m. It promises to be an interesting meeting as it is probable that proposal to take over the Old High School will be discussed. Another important item of business which was left over from last meeting was the offer to lease the arena for the season which the Reeve said would be considered by the Committee in charge. It is probable that this committee will report at the council meeting on Monday.

York Market

Cold weather kept folk away from the North Toronto market Tuesday night, although about 70 farmers were at their stands with a fine assortment of vegetables, fruit, and other farm produce. The flower market seemed particularly affected by the cold. Very few cut flowers being available, although ferns and potted plants were to be had. Jerusalem cherries were from 25 to 40c a pot.

Plenty of cabbages were on the market, selling at 10 and 15 cents each. Cauliflowers showed the first touch of frost, head lettuce also, but there was a good supply of fresh green leaf lettuce as well as crisp red radishes from the green houses, selling at 3 for 10c. Celery benefited by the frost, sold at 10c, or 3 for 25c.

Butter and egg prices were unchanged, 48 and 50c lb. for the former 60c. to 75c doz. for the latter. Chicken sold at 45c lb. for roasters and 38c for boilers. Ducks were 35c and 40c lb.; geese, 30c. Pork was plentiful; legs sold at 27c lb; loins, 30c to 35c; butts, 25c.

KING CITY

The seventy-first anniversary of the King Anglican Church will be celebrated here on Sunday when Rev. Canon Fidler of St. Clements Church, Toronto, will have charge of the services both morning and evening.

A number from here attended the anniversary services held in the United Church, Nobleton, on October 21st. Rev. Mr. Cran of Woodbridge conducted both services. The church was filled to overflowing, a great many not being able to gain admittance.

We are all delighted to have with us again Miss Anne Patton and hope her visit will be of long duration. Ann is a general favorite and is welcomed by all who knew her in the past.
