Normal people are those who buy a stove to keep seven rooms comfortably warm and then sit in one closed-up room heated to 85.

The hotel guest gets his money's worth. He may not take a bath, but the bath towels give his shoes a nice polish.

Modern youth wouldn't be wild, either, if he could get a thrill by racing a buggy horse up and down Main Street.

KING CITY

MANAGER OF SIR HENRY PELLATT'S ESTATE CALLED BY DEATH

Thomas McVittie, general manager of Sir Henry Pellatt's 1000-acre country estate at King, passed away on Friday, November 16th, following a brief illness. Mr. McVittie was 63 years of age. On Saturday he returned from a hunting trip in the north country and went to bed suffering from a severe cold. This developed into pneumonia which culminated fatally.

"Thomas McVittie was one of the best friends I ever had in my life. I am heartbroken over his loss," said Sir Henry Pellatt. "Twenty-five years ago he came to me with a letter from Lord Roberts, the famous field marshal. I gave him a job to help in my conservatories and in three years, to cut a long story short, he was my head man.

"In my opinion he was one of the leading horticulturists in Canada and the more than two thousand prizes awarded for flower exhibits which I have in my possession are striking testimony to his ability. On my estate at King he managed everything for me and each Saturday we would go fishing on my lake together. "I never had a more loyal and true friend."

SPIRIT OF SANTA CLAUS HAS STRONG APPEAL

We have been asked several times during the week of the names of the two representatives of the local hockey who were appointed to attend the annual meeting of the O.H.A. in Toronto on Saturday last, but became so enamored by Santa Claus and his cohorts of Tin Soldiers that they failed to arrive at the meeting. The executive will not state definitely who the representatives were, but from good information which we have received we are led to believe it may have been "Pug" Harding and Eric White.
