OBITUARY

LATE WILBERT SAIGEON

The funeral of the late Wilbert Saigeon was held at his late residence in Edmonton, Alberta, on Friday, November 9th. The deceased who was well known in the business life of the Western city was a brother of J. T. Saigeon, of Maple. He was in his sixty-first year and moved to Edmonton some thirty one years ago, and was engaged in the tailoring business. Besides a wide circle of friends he leaves to mourn his loss a wife and two daughters, Mrs. G. Y. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. W. C. Butters, of Edmonton, six brothers, Walter, Joseph, and Nelson of Morse, Sask., John T. of Maple, Ontario; William, of Drayton, and Edgar and one sister, Mrs. Chas. Doane, of Vancouver. Following a private service at the house a service was held in the Wesley United Church which was very largely attended. A great number of floral tributes were testimony of the esteem of a wide circle of friends and relatives. Interment followed in Edmonton cemetery.

DIED

GROUND—On Monday, December 10th, 1928, at St. John's Hospital, Toronto, Phoebe Martha, beloved wife of Fred Ground, Thornhill, Ont.

The funeral was held on Wednesday December 12th, at 1 p. m. from her late residence, Thornhill and interment followed at St. John's Cemetery, Norway.

Y. P. S. MEETING

The regular meeting of the Young People's Society was held Monday evening. A good attendance was present and enjoyed an interesting address on Chinese Missions. The talk was illustrated by slides. Next Monday evening will be the last meeting of this year as none will be held during Christmas week. An interesting program has been provided. After the regular program refreshments will be served. Ladies will please supply the refreshments. Everybody welcome. Come and make our last meeting of the year a success.

TUNE IN on Richmond Hill's Radio Hour next Wednesday evening.

RICHMOND HILL HIGH SCHOOL GLEE CLUB

A Glee Club under the expert leadership of Mr. Melleci has been organized in the High School and although it has only been in existence a few weeks it is progressing to a remarkable degree. About thirty-five of the pupils are taking advantage of the opportunity offered and this feature of the school work promises to be very helpful. The executive consists of:—Hon.-President Mr. A. Wright; President, Egerton Young; Vice-President, Iris Thompson Secretary, Anna Phipps; Treasurer, Donald Hick; Leader and Pianist, Mr. Melleci. On Sunday evening, December 16th the Glee Club will furnish the music at the Richmond Hill United Church.

The whole Dominion is talking of the great improvement in the Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal. At $1.00 a year or 3 years for $2.00 it is the farmers highest dividend paying investment, and the family circle gets with it the best of all magazines free.

The members of the W.M.S. feel proud of their efforts in Missionary work this past year, as their allocation was overreached by quite a sum.

CARRVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. W. Reaman, Miss Campbell and her sister, Mrs. Mulholland, of Toronto, spent Sunday with Mrs. D. S. Reaman and family.

Mr. and Miss Kenny, of Toronto, visited at Mr. J. Barton's on Monday.

Mrs. L. Clement is spending a few days at Grand Valley, helping to take care of her father, Mr. Baker who is very ill. The family have the sympathy of this neighborhood in their anxious time. Mr. Baker was a resident of Carrville before moving to Grand Valley a number of years ago.

We all wish Mr. Jake Koning, of Richvale a speedy recovery after undergoing an operation in Toronto General Hospital last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Patterson and Mrs. Sines, of Toronto, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. Patterson.

Misses Ethel and Isabell Anderson, also Miss Margaret Vanderburgh of Toronto, spent Sunday with their parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. R.C. English, of Alliston, spent Friday night at Mr. J. Bovairs.

The Y. P. S. meeting this week will be in charge of Miss Bertha Dickenson and Mr. Lloyd Gane.

Don't forget the Carrville Christmas entertainment on Tuesday evening, December 18th in the church. The program will consist of choruses, recitations, dialogues, and drills. Santa Claus will be there at the close of the program.

Unionville

In the passing of Mr. Oliver Harding at his home here on Thursday evening, December 6th, following a prolonged illness, Unionville loses a time honored and highly respected citizen. He was born on April 24, 1847 on the Harding homestead, Ebenezer, Milliken, in which vicinity he lived until coming to Unionville 23 years ago. He married Sarah Jane L. Ameroux, also of Milliken, on May 31, 1871 and of this union four children were born three daughters and one son. His wife and two children predeceased him by some years. Mr. Harding was a man of sterling qualities, always taking a keen interest in religious and municipal affairs. A life long member of the Methodist Church, he became a member of the United church at the time of amalgamation. The funeral was held from the family residence here on Saturday, December 8th and appropriate services were conducted by Rev. H. H. Eaton at Ebenezer United Church. The interment was in the family plot at Ebenezer United Cemetery. Two daughters survive, Mrs. W. Annis, Kingston Road and Mrs. O. Ash, Unionville and to them is expressed the sincere sympathy of the entire community.

W. I. Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Unionville Branch W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. H. H. Eaton, a good representation of ladies present. The roll call was responded to by Christmas suggestions not over 25 cents, and proved most practical. The program was an interesting one, and consisted of the reports from the delegates at the convention held in Toronto last month by Mrs. Frisby and Mrs. Milner and a few words from one district representative, Mrs. Armitage. A splendid paper given by Miss Millie Miller on "Famous Men" and an instrumental duet by Mrs. Whaley and Miss Eckardt were much appreciated at the conclusion of the program. Afternoon tea was served by the hostesses, Mrs. H.H. Eaton, Miss I. Weighill, Mrs. Spears, Mrs. W. Young and the usual pleasant social hour was spent.

MARKHAM

The High School held their annual commencement and entertainment on Friday night when the diplomas for this year were presented to the successful candidates. A good crowd was present to enjoy the program and the young people enjoyed the promenade afterwards.

The ladies of the Eastern Star held their regular meeting on Wednesday night of last week, when a shower was given for the sailors of Nova Scotia. The members of the Masonic Lodge entertained the ladies on Tuesday night.

Mrs. Jas. A. Wales has returned home after spending the week in Montreal to attend the wedding of her son James to Miss Cromlie, of Montreal. Also while there she visited other friends.
