OBITUARY

WILLIAM BOWES

In the passing of William Bowes on Tuesday morning, February 26th, after a lengthy illness, Thornhill loses one of its most highly respected citizens. The late Mr. Bowes was born at Concord on May 16th, 1857. Before coming to Thornhill he resided at Laskay where he was in the merchandise business. In 1890 he moved to Thornhill where he has since resided. In 1884 the late Mr. Bowes married Miss Louise Watson, of Laskay, who along with one daughter, Mrs. Fred Echlin, also one sister, Miss Fannie Bowes and one brother, Mr. George Bowes all of this village, survive.

The funeral service was held from the residence of his daughter on Thursday afternoon and was largely attended by many old friends and relatives. The service was conducted by Rev. W. E. Baker, pastor of the United Church here. The pallbearers were six nephews of the deceased, Norman, Ross, Fred, Arthur, Harry and Albert Bowes. Interment took place in Thornhill cemetery.

ANN ELIZABETH LINDSAY

Ann Elizabeth Lindsay, formerly of this village and wife of the late John T. B. Lindsay, who predeceased her thirty years ago, passed away in Toronto on Saturday, February 23rd. The late Mrs. Lindsay was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Francis and was born on the 8th concession of Markham seventy three years ago. The late Mr. and Mrs. John T. B. Lindsay moved to Thornhill in the year 1885, where Mr. Lindsay entered the mercantile business associated with Lindsay-Francis Co. Upon the death of the late Mr. Lindsay, his wife with six children to mourn his loss moved to the house now occupied by Mr. John Breakey, later moving to Toronto where she has since resided. The late Mrs. Lindsay leaves to mourn her loss, one daughter Ada and two sons, William and Arthur all of Toronto, and three brothers Edward and Samuel, Thornhill and William of Toronto.

Funeral service was held from the residence of her son William Lindsay, 29 Mount Royal Ave., on Monday afternoon and was conducted by Rev. Dr. Armstrong. The pall-bearers were: William and Arthur Lindsay, Edward and William Francis, and Allan and Gordon Francis. Interment followed to Thornhill cemetery.

Lansing

HORTICULTURAL OFFICERS

At the annual meeting of Lansing Horticultural Society E. Morrison was re-elected president; R. Dewar first vice-president; and Mrs. Wm. Burford secretary-treasurer. The society had a successful year and now has a membership of 70 adults and a number of juveniles.

Oak Ridges

Rev. Blevin Atkinson, Curate, of St. Amies Church, Toronto, will preach in St. John's Church, Oak Ridges Sunday morning. Service at 11 o'clock a. m.

MAPLE

The matter of buying a fire engine is being considered by the ratepayers of the village. A Lorne engine manufactured at Mitchell passed through here on Monday its way to Schomberg, and several men of the village are going to that place to see it working.

The Cressy Concert Co. are holding entertainments in the Community hall every evening this week.

The regular monthly meeting of the W. M. S. of the United Church was held at the home of Mrs. T. H. Keys on Wednesday of last week. A box of clothing is being packed by the ladies to be sent away at an early date. The usual program was carried out and afternoon tea was served. Five new members were added to the Society.

Beginning on Sunday, March 10th, Sabbath School and Divine Service will be held in St. Andrew's Church in the afternoon, instead of in the morning as formerly. This will continue during the year, and will alternate with St. Paul's Church every year.

Miss Audrey Richardson, of Allandale, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Rumble.

The choir of the United Church purposes holding a service of song on Sunday evening, March 10th.

To Present Play in Community Hall

The Winning of Joy a comedy drama in three acts will be presented by the girls of the Maple Merry Makers of St. Andrew's Sunday School on Tuesday, March 5th in the Community Hall. The play will be under the direction of Mrs. W. J. Johnson and the programme of the evening will include musical numbers, readings, etc. The players taking part include, M. Easton, M. Ingram, B. Mathewson, S. Mathewson, G. Johnson, O. McQuarrie, R. Snider, J. Ingram, M. Johnson, A. White, R. Watson and A. McLean. Admission, adults 35 cents; children 20 cents.

Miss Grace Johnson has been successful in passing her Primary piano examination with honours at the Toronto Conservatory of music. Grace is a pupil of Miss Margaret Hendry, of Toronto.

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Snider entertained a large number of their friends in their new handsome and commodious house which has recently been completed. After all had partaken of the splendid repast an hour was spent in social intercourse followed by progressive crokinole. The prize winners were, ladies 1st, Mrs. D. Julian; 2nd, Mrs. Roland Keffer; gents 1st, Mr. Ellsworth Keffer; 2nd Mr. Ross Keffer. At the close Rev. Mr. Heimerich thanked the host and hostess for the splendid evenings entertainment and all sang "For they are jolly good fellows."

The congregation meeting was held in the school room of the United church on Tuesday evening. Reports of the different departments were read and refreshments were served.

York Market

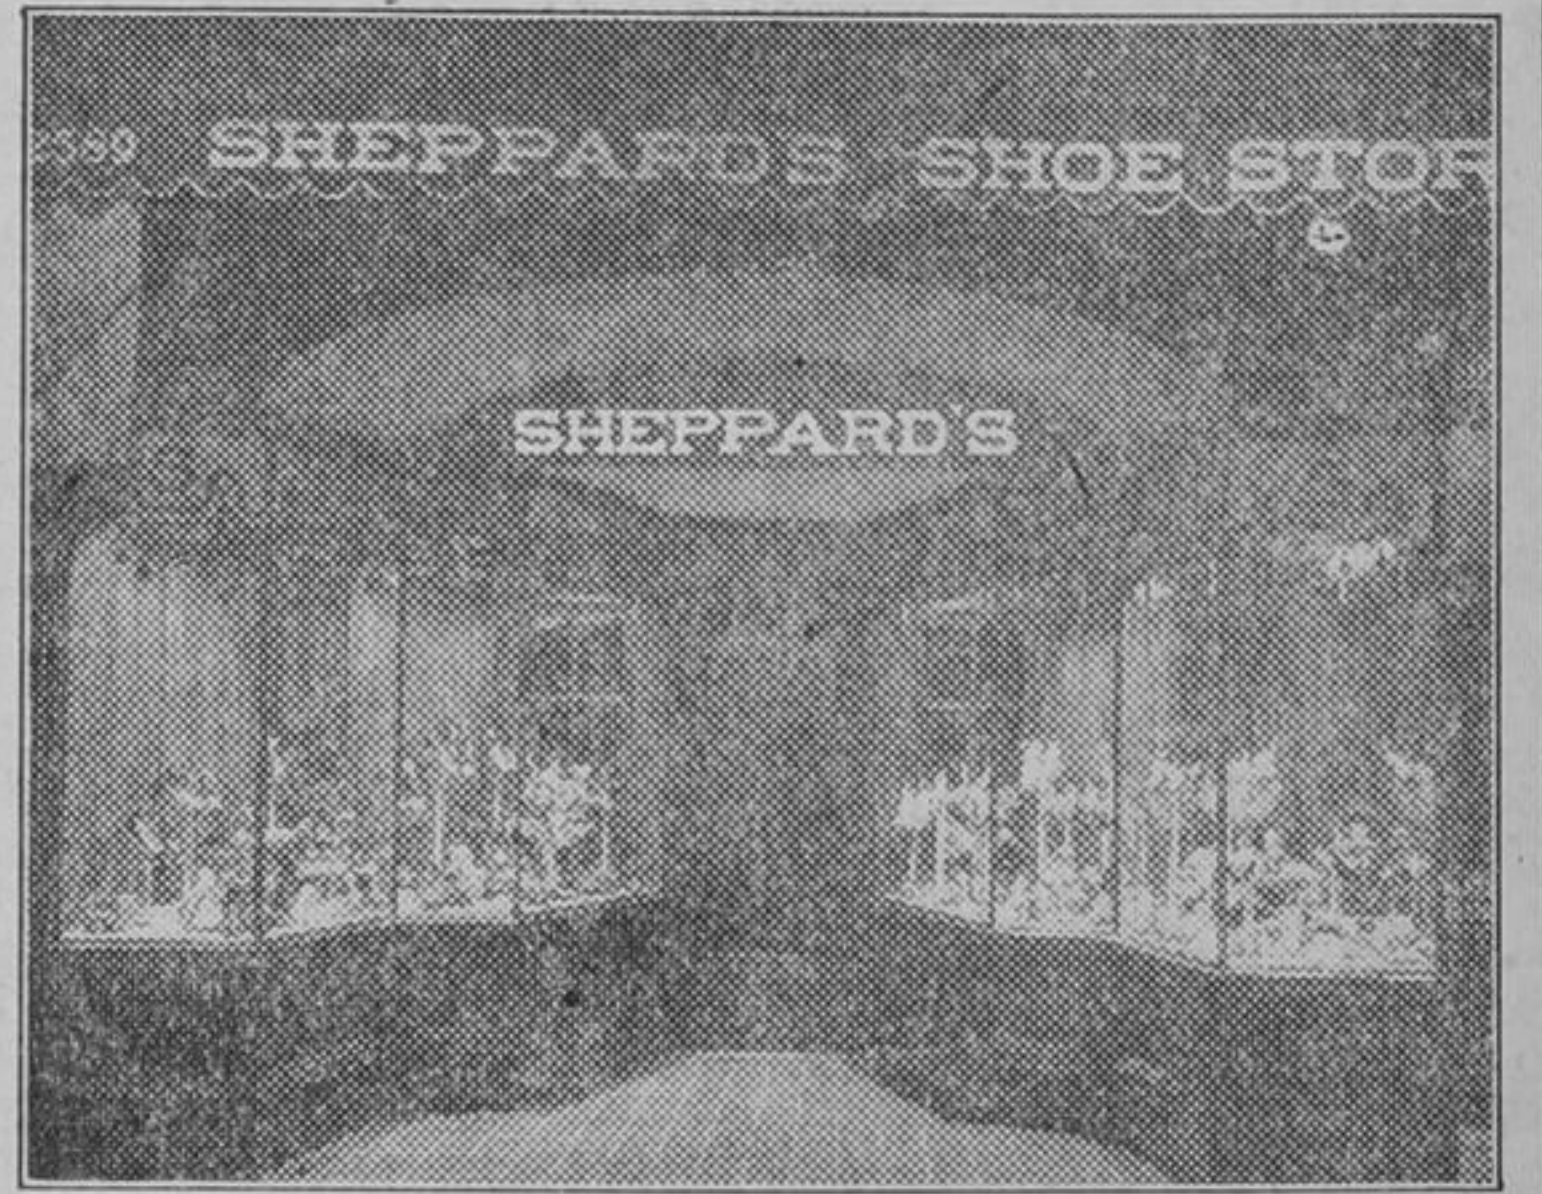

Business was good Tuesday night at the North Toronto Market where the housewife could buy not only the freshest of raw produce but also all she required to serve a delicious meal without the trouble of cooking for roast pork, pickles, preserves, cakes, bread and fresh dairy butter, all fit for a royal spread, could be purchased at reasonable prices.

Plenty of eggs, the freshest procurable, and selling from 45 to 60c. a doz. Duck eggs were there, too, at 60 to 72 cents doz.
