

THORNHILL DISTRICT NEWS

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY
Sponsored by the Canadian Pacific Railway and under the operation of Mr. F. Barkey, of Toronto, three very interesting films were shown in the Young People's Society of the United Church last Monday evening. Next Monday evening the program will be in the form of a social evening, contests are being prepared and refreshments will be served. All welcome.

MEASURING SOCIAL
The Women's Association of the United Church will hold a St. Patrick's Measuring Social in the Sunday school room, Thursday evening, March 14th. (to-night) at 8 p. m. Interesting program, contests, refreshments served. The following is the verse composed by Miss Almada Clubine: On the fourteenth of March,
At the hour of eight,
A social there'll be,
So please don't be late,
The ladies at the U. C.
Are having a spree,
It is not very costly,
No yet is it free,
You'll pay one cent an inch,
For the size of your girth;
Come early and get your full moneys worth.

LANGSTAFF HILL CLUB MET
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Teeson entertained the Langstaff Hill Club at their home last Saturday evening. Six tables of progressive euchre were in play. The following were the prize winners—Ladies, Miss Marjorie Ball, Roman cut work luncheon cloth; gents Wm. Ness, double deck of cards. Dainty refreshments were served and an enjoyable evening spent by all present.

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION MEETING
The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Association of the United Church will be held at the home of Mrs. N. J. Smellie, next Wednesday afternoon, March 20th. The assisting hostesses will be Mrs. J. E. Francis and Mrs. Sinclair. The ladies of the congregation are cordially invited to be present.

DANCE IN FINDLAY'S HALL
A dance will be held in Findlay's hall next Monday evening, March 18th under the auspices of the Orange Lodge. Refreshments will be served. Ladies please provide.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE MEETING
The regular monthly meeting of the Thornhill Branch of the Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. Carson, York Mills, next Thursday afternoon, March 21st, at 3 o'clock. The roll call will be answered by Irish jokes. The ladies of the community are cordially invited to become members of this organization.

EUCHRE PARTY
At the progressive euchre party held in the Victoria Hall last Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the Ladies Softball Club, the following were the prize winners:—Ladies, 1st, Miss Edna Wiltshire, sandwich plate; 2nd, Gladys Hooper, marmalade jar; Gents 1st, Elwood McLean, leather tie case; 2nd, Mr. T. Irwin, leather bill folder; The consolation prizes were carried off by Miss Norma Ground and Mr. F. Tutt. Refreshments were served at the close.

DANCE IN FINDLAYS HALL
All roads led to Findlays' Hall, on Monday night, March 11th, when the ladies of the North York Market, with Mrs. E. Hill as President and Mrs. F. Graham as first vice, held their third euchre and dance of the season. The hall was crowded to capacity, people being present from Wexford, Toronto, Aurora, Vellore, Unionville, Richmond Hill, Victoria Square, Buttonville, Elgin Mills, Fisherville and other places. There were thirty-two tables of euchre played, first prize for ladies went to Mrs. C. Glover, consolation to Miss Gwen Thompson. First prize to gents went to Mr. A. F. Marsh; consolation being presented to Mr. C. Graham, Richmond Hill. Music was provided by Snider's Orchestra with Farmer Ball as floor manager. The event of the evening, the lucky spot waltz, was exciting, the prize going to Mr. C. Glover and his partner. The night was ideal, and everyone reports having an excellent time, and are eagerly looking forward to the next.

WM. McDONALD'S SALE GREAT SUCCESS
The auction sale of horses, farm implements, etc., belonging to Wm. McDonald of this village, which was held Tuesday afternoon was a decided success and well attended. The horses ranging in price from $100 to $180. The implements and furniture also sold well. Mr. McDonald is giving up the teaming business and is going in for trucking only. Prentice and Prentice, Auctioneers, conducted the sale.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL
Mr. and Mrs. Garrie Lane and Misses Irene and Margaret Lane, of Toronto, visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Smellie.
Miss Almada Clubine left Monday for Niagara Falls, where she will spend several weeks.

Wells spent the week-end with the former's brother at Laskay, Ont.

Messrs N. J. Smellie and P. Robinson attended a banquet at Burwash Hall last Friday evening.

Newtonbrook

Mrs. Frank Summers, we are sorry to say, has been very ill.

Mr. Dixon Foreman, who is building a power-house at Trethewy Falls, spent a few days at his home last week.

Mr. Merrill has recovered enough to return home from the hospital.

There was a large turnout to the Young People's Society last Monday evening. Miss Janet Riddle presided. Miss Dorothy Marsh provided a piano solo and Miss Street sang. Mr. Robert Moore read the scripture lesson. Mr. Mason, taking for his subject, the Parables of Jesus, gave a very helpful and instructive address. The meeting next week will be on Tuesday evening, when the Newtonbrook young people are invited to visit the Lansing Young People's Society.

The Newtonbrook Sunday School entertainment has been arranged for Tuesday, April 9th. The following artists have already been secured: Mr. Tom Hamilton, Scotch comedian; Mr. A. C. Chapman, Tenor; and Mr. A. H. Hargreaves, ventriloquist. A very interesting evening is promised and you are asked to keep this date for this event and to come and help the school. The Sunday school room of Newtonbrook Church is to be re-decorated in the near future.

The Rev. Harold O. Hutcheson, B. A., B. D., of Mount Albert, will occupy the pulpit of the Newtonbrook United Church next Sunday, both morning and evening.

The Rev. R. P. MacKay, D.D., of Toronto, will, D. V., be the preacher at the Union Good Friday Service that is to be held in the Newtonbrook United Church on Good Friday, March 29., at 11 a. m. Miss Jocelyn Berry, of the Lansing-Willowdale Presbyterian Church, has also promised to sing at this service. For several years these services have been very popular and been found exceedingly helpful. It is hoped that the gathering this year will be equally well attended and inspiring. This is a day and a service that may well be remembered by all who love our Lord Jesus Christ and realize, with gratitude, the blessing of His passion and death. All, who would honor Christ, are welcome to come to this service. As it has been the custom in the past, an offering will be received for The Sick Children's Hospital.

KING CITY

The opening services of King City United Church will take place on Sunday, March 17th at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. S. D. Chown, D. D., ex-Moderator will preach dedication services.

A banquet will be served on Monday evening from 5 to 8 o'clock followed by a programme by the following artists:—Mrs. (Rev.) P. W. Richardson, Contralto; Brillinger Trio, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. R. Reynolds, of Beamsville; Miss Grace Stone, elocutionist; Miss Lillian Leece, pianist; A short history of the church will be read by Rev. Albert Leece. There will also be addresses by former pastors. The following Sunday, March 24th the services at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. will be conducted by Rev. Thomas McLaughlin, M. A., assisted by the pastor, Rev. Alex. H. Halbert.

The choir will be assisted by a male quartette, of Toronto.
A grand entertainment will be given on Monday evening, March 25th, commencing at 8 o'clock by the following artists:—Miss Ethel Calvert, violinist (and gold medalist); Miss Lillian Calvert, pianist; Mrs. Harold Butt, elocutionist; Miss Jean McDonald, soprano; Miss Bertha Cook, contralto; Mr. J. Stevenson, Tenor; Miss Grace Bonnick, accompanist. Come along and bring your friends. Everybody welcome.

CARRVILLE

The Y. P. S. will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dellbrocco on Friday night. Miss Thora Allen and Mr. Lloyd Vanderburgh are in charge of the program.

Mrs. Lewis Clement and Mr. Walter Reaman attended the funeral of their uncle at Severn Bridge on Monday.

Mr. Wilfred Keffer attended a banquet in Burwash Hall, Toronto, last Friday night.

Miss Thora Allen had tea with Miss Dorothy Bone on Sunday.

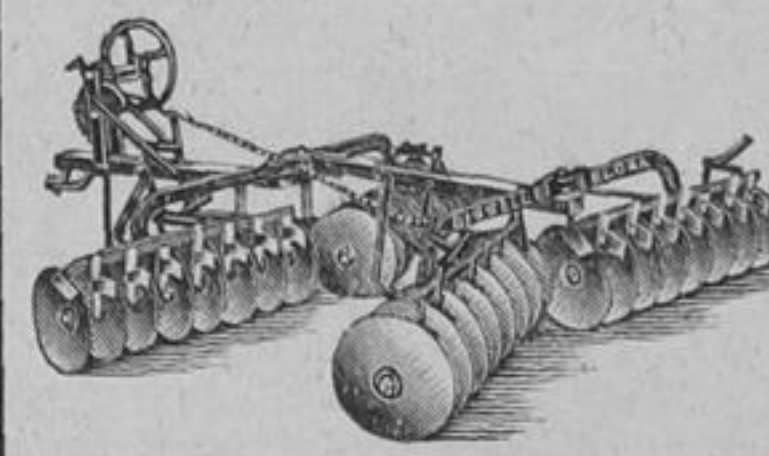

Glad to report that Dorothy Drury is progressing favourably after her operation at the Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto last week.

Stepping-Up Motor Car Quality in the Low-Priced Field

THE Pontiac Big Six is a low-priced car yet in performance, in beauty and style, in luxury, it offers all the advantages of a truly fine, big car.

Its big, new L-head engine develops the speed, power and acceleration of a big car. Its new, noiseless internal four-wheel brakes provide big car safety and control. It offers the big car symmetry and beauty of stunning new Fisher bodies, flaring fenders, high, narrow radiators and fine car proportions and lines.

Learn by investigation what a decidedly advantageous "buy" it represents.
