

Fresh Water Tiger

35 pound musky captured by G. Clark of Toronto after an hour's fight with a light rod and nine pound test line

Fishermen differ as to the fighting merits of the various species of the finny tribe to be found in North American waters. Some claim that, inch for inch and pound for pound, the small mouth black bass is the gamest fish that swims; others are equally enthusiastic in praise of the speckled brook trout; while still another fraternity claim that the salmon puts up as noble a battle for liberty as any game fish extant. All are agreed, however, that the muscalunge, sometimes called the "fresh water tiger" is one of the greatest fighters known to anglers, and that he will put up a battle royal when attached to the business end of a rod.

One of the productive muscalunge streams in North America is French River, in Ontario, Canada, which connects Lake Nipissing on the East with Georgian Bay on the West. This tangle of waterways is not only the haunt of the fighting muscalunge but it yields small and large mouth black bass, great northern pike of enormous size and pickerel in abundance, as well as pan fish. Not long ago a prominent New York business man landed a 55 pound "muskie" after a battle which will probably satisfy his quest for a thrill for the rest of his life.

French River is two hundred miles north of Toronto on the Sudbury Line. The French River Bungalow Camp, a series of cozy individual bungalows centering around a main club house, provides comfortable accommodations for the angler and his family. Jack Strathdee, manager of this anglers' retreat, is a genial host who is glad to give the uninitiated fisherman a few tips on how to lure the wily "muskie." French River Bungalow Camp has as its adjunct Pine Rapids Camp, some 20 miles up the river, and located just at the spot where the "whoppers" are likely to lurk.

The regular monthly meeting of the local branch W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. N. Ogden and proved to be a most interesting one, it being "Grandmothers Day". The program had been suitably arranged and was thoroughly enjoyed by all—16 grandmothers were present, and the request to wear old fashioned clothing was complied with by the majority. Mrs. F. Boadway winning the prize for having the most grandchildren (15). A splendid paper on grandmothers customs was given by Mrs. C. H. Stiver, taking the hearers back to days of Log Cabins, soap making, spinning, candles, etc. The guessing of "who's who" in old time photos was very amusing. The prize winner being Mrs. A. F. White. The presence of the District President, Mrs. Graves was appreciated, who gave an interesting talk on "Canadian Poets" reading several charming selections by the different authors, and suggesting the giving of a copy of Canadian Poems as Christmas gifts. A good old fashioned luncheon including, home-made bread and butter, ginger bread, etc., was served by the Hostesses, Mrs. N. Ogden, Mrs. C. E. Stiver, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Stonehouse and Mrs. J. Thompson.

The tumbling team under the management of Mr. H. Gibson in the Lamp Black Minstrels is the best ever. See them on Friday night at the Township Hall and give your Public Library a Boost.

contest was keenly contested. The 1st prize going to Miss Gladys Dyke, Master Davey MacKay a close second. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Miss Weighill who was assisted by some of her senior pupils.

The Junior Mission Band of Central United Church held their annual Easter Thank-Offering meeting in Central United Church on Tuesday evening. The program was an interesting one consisting of a splendid address by Miss Scruten of Korea, that was most inspiring and instructive as well; also two fine choruses by the Band and solos by Miss Margaret Moore and Miss June Warren were much enjoyed. This Band is a live organization of willing workers under the efficient leadership of Mrs. N. Ogden.

You'll miss something if you don't hear the "Old Time Quartette" at the Lamp Black Minstrel show on Friday night in the Township Hall.

THIS IS NO JOKE
In these days of the high cost of living the following story has a decided point:
The teacher of a primary class: "What do you think is the most wonderful thing man ever made?"
A little girl, whose parents were obviously harassed by the question of ways and means, replied as solemnly as the proverbial judge: "A living for a family."
