D. D. G. M. PAID OFFICIAL VISIT
TO VAUGHAN LODGE

Vaughan Lodge had as their guests on Tuesday evening, a large number of members of district and city lodges to assist them in doing honor to R. W. Bro. Alexander on the occasion of his official visit. Following the work in the Lodge room the members adjourned to the banquet hall where a sumptuous repast was served and a pleasant social time enjoyed. W. Bro. Jones acted as toastmaster and the toast to the Grand Lodge was proposed by R. W. Bro. Jas. B. McLean, P.D. D.G.M. and responded to by the District Deputy who delivered an instructive and inspiring address to the assembled brethren. "Our visitors" was proposed by W. Bro. Dr. Routley and responded to by a number of prominent visitors who expressed pleasure on once partaking of the hospitality of Vaughan Lodge.

Mrs. J. B. McLean and Miss A. Walkington are attending the Provincial convention of the W.M.S. as delegates from St. Andrews Church.

The members of the Horticultural Society are requested to attend a meeting in the Masonic Hall on Wednesday evening, May 1st, when the premiums of bulbs, perennials and shrubs will be distributed. The meeting will be of a social nature, a programme will be given and refreshments served.

On Sunday morning Sarah Little, beloved wife of David Rumble entered into rest, after a long illness. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon and was attended by many relatives and friends. The pall-bearers were the four sons and two sons-in-law, and the service was conducted by Rev. A. S. Kerr assisted by Rev. A. Halbert. There were many beautiful floral tributes. The sympathy of all is extended to the husband and family in their bereavement.

Mr. J.A. Rose and Mr. J. S. Rose, attended the funeral of Mr. Alfred Rose, brother of the former, in Hamilton on Tuesday.

Mr. A. Lawrie and family are moving into the house, belonging to the McDonald estate and recently purchased by Mr. Lawrie.

Miss Marjorie Currie is visiting with her sister Mrs. Geo. W. Bailey.

IN MEMORIAM
Hedda: Why do you wear spats?
Lucien: In memory of my first wife.

FOOLISH QUESTION
He: "May I kiss you?"
She: "Heavens! Another amateur!"

YOUNG IDEAS AT LEAST
Judging by the way they act, most middleaged people must feel younger than they look.

THE MODERN AGE
Gar: The folks across the street must be away. They have no lights.
Bage: No, their daughter is having a party.

HEIGHT OF SOMETHING
A Scotchman recently sued a baseball company because he was hurt while watching a ball game. He fell out of a tree.—Judge.

Letters From The People

SUBSCRIBER COMPLAINS OF OMISSION OF COUNCIL
NEWS

April 21st, 1929

Editor Liberal,
Sir:—
Being a constant reader of your valuable paper I take a great deal of interest in the doings of our new council. During the week I have heard of discussions which took place at a meeting last week and on consulting our local paper I fail to see any mention of it. Now Mr. Editor, I do not want to be critical, and I certainly appreciate your efforts to give us a good paper, but I hope that you do not overlook council news in getting out your weekly edition. As ratepayers we are very much interested in the council's activities and how are we to know if you do not report the meetings. It is possible that it may appear next week but in any event I hope that this incident is not an indication of any new policy on your part whereby your readers are to be deprived of the council news. Thanking you for the space in your valuable paper.

AN INTERESTED SUBSCRIBER

NOTE—The Liberal is represented at every regular meeting of the council and at every special meeting of which we have any notice. We were not advised in any way that there was to be a special meeting last Wednesday night and consequently we were not there and could not report the proceedings. Even an editor is not possessed of supernatural power to be able to know that a meeting is going to be held if he is not so advised in some way. It is customary in other centres to advise the press of all regular and special meetings of council and we agree with "An Interested Subscriber" and deem it our duty to give the ratepayers the news concerning the transaction of their own business. However if the Richmond Hill council chose to hold meetings without extending this courtesy to the Press and the ratepayers we will be denied the privilege of rendering this service to our readers. — (Ed.)

CARRVILLE

The attendance at song service last Sunday evening was larger than usual. As this service seems so much enjoyed it is planned to hold one on the third Sunday of every month. Any one having a favorite hymn they would like sung at these services please make your request known to the choir-master, Mr. P. A. Drury, on or before the second Sunday of the month. Requests are particularly appreciated.

Miss Olive Bovair attended the Shantymen's Christian Association Convention in Toronto on Tuesday.

The annual oratorical contest of our school was held in the church last Friday evening with eleven speakers taking part. In the senior group Dorothy Hobday won the cup, Cathie Wark coming second and Lloyd Gane third. In the Junior group Mary Delbrocco was awarded first prize, May Hillier second; Annie Delbrocco third. The judges were Mr. Stuart, of Richmond Hill, Mr. McCormack and Miss Carey, of Maple. Songs, duets, humorous readings and mouth organ selections between speeches helped to make a very pleasant and entertaining program.

Mrs. Brake, of Toronto, and Mrs. Vaught, of Los Angeles, were calling on old friends one day last week.

Mrs. R. McDowell, accompanied by her daughter Pearl, spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. G. R. Wood.

The Y.P.S. will meet as usual on Friday evening in the church.

At the meeting of the Young People's Society on Friday evening, April 26th, Mr. Walter Cox, of Shantymen's Mission will speak. We will also be favored with a musical selection by Mr. Murray Downing.

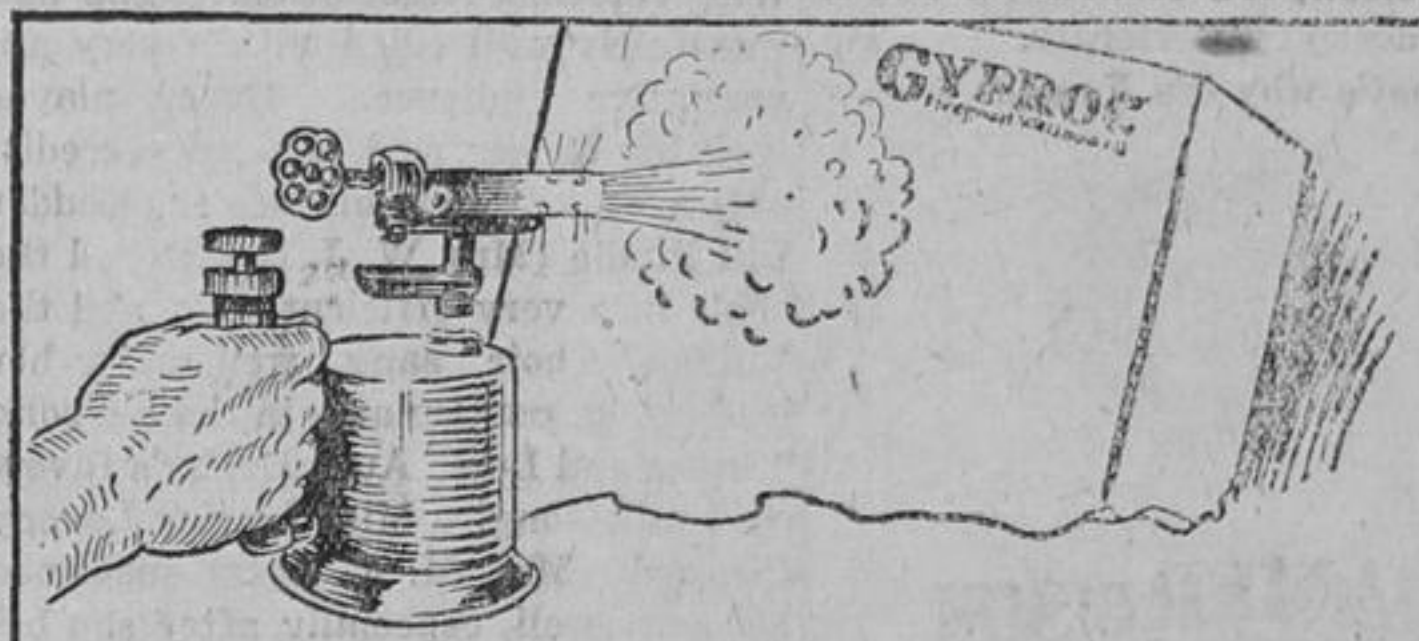

Mr. Fulton Vanderburg was home over the week-end to attend the annual Convocation in Divinity of Victoria University and closing exercises of Emmanuel College where he received his diploma for ordination to the ministry of the United Church of Canada. He has returned to the Union Theological Seminary of New York, where he is taking a course in Religious Education and expects to be there this coming year.
