Junior Farmers Judging Competition Awards Announced

Vaughan Township Winners of Imperial Bank Cup—
Clarence Graham Won Senior Championship

The annual live stock judging competition and household science judging competition held in the Richmond Hill district by the Junior Farmers of York County last Thursday were very successful. Keen interest was shown in all the contests by the young people and the competition was spirited. The competitions were in charge of R. E. White, district representative of the Ontario Department of Agriculture and to him and his energetic assistants must go much credit for the success of the event. In the evening following the judging a banquet was held in the Richmond Hill United Church when a delightful program was carried out and the prize winners announced and the prizes awarded.

Cash prizes were awarded in Junior and Senior Competitions for the boys. 36 boys competed.
