WOMEN'S INSTITUTE MEETING

With Richmond Hill and Oak Ridges as the guests of the Thornhill Branch of the Women's Institute a very interesting meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Riddell last Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Phipps, president of the Richmond Hill W. I. presided and in a few well chosen words introduced the speaker, Mrs. Cook, of Beamsville, who gave a very interesting and educative address on "protective food values." Solos were rendered by Miss Burnaby, of Oak Ridges, and Mrs. D. M. Chamney, of Richmond Hill. Dainty refreshments were served, after which the meeting closed with all singing God Save the King.

H. I. A. T. CLUB

The members of the H. I. A. T. Club, of Trinity Church, left on Thursday morning for a camping party at Mrs. R. Fee's cottage, Bass Lake. They returned on Sunday night and report having had a splendid outing. They were accompanied by Mrs. Fee, Mrs. W. C. L. Ball and Miss Elizabeth Wilson, the President.

SHOWER FOR MISS MILDRED RADLEY

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mrs. A. Brillinger, Tuesday evening, June 25th, when a number of friends presented Miss Mildred Radley with a blue granite shower. Miss Radley and the groom to be, Mr. Cyril Brillinger were very much surprised when they entered the living room to meet with showers of confetti and the strains of Lohenguns wedding march played by Miss Edith Davies. Besides many beautiful pieces of blue granite, Miss Radley received various other articles among them were a pyrex cake dish, luncheon set, and towels. Miss Radley and Mr. Brillinger thanked the friends for their lovely gifts and Mrs. Brillinger for opening her home.

MARKHAM

The Markham branch of the Eastern Star Lodge held their last meeting of the season on Wednesday night. It was a social evening and games and refreshments were enjoyed by those present.

Miss Janet Lawrie arrived home from New York, on Wednesday last. It may have been hot here, but the temperature was near the hundred mark down there.

A number from here attended the Women's Institute annual meeting at Stouffville on Thursday. Dr. Margaret Patterson, of Toronto, gave an interesting address and the ladies of Stouffville provided bountifully for the visitors.

A happy event took place on Saturday at Claremont when Lucy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Dawson was married to William Perry Boyington son of Mr. and Mrs. William Boyington, of Markham. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Mr. McClellan and the couple left on a honeymoon to Muskoka. On their return they will reside on the farm. Mr. and Mrs. Boyington retiring to live in town.

A number from here attended the anniversary services on Sunday at St. Andrew's Church, Bendale. The garden party and entertainment on Monday night were delightful as the location is an ideal one for such an occasion. The choir of Emmanuel Presbyterian church, assisted by Miss Cameron gave a fine program.

WARNING

We have shaken off the fetters of one winter and are beginning to prepare for the next. Nature takes care of the birds and beasts, but man has to look out for himself. The lesson to be learned from all this is that man puts off from day to day the things he should do. Suddenly he realizes that time is getting short and he must hurry. This is a reminder to urge our customers and others to put their coal in NOW.
