A MID-NIGHT VISIT TO DEPUTY REEVE STIVER

Just what might have happened had not Deputy-Reeve R.L. Stiver, of Markham township been roused by the noise of a car driving into his yard last Saturday evening will never be known. On hearing the noise about midnight Mr. Stiver went out in the yard and was surprised to see a Packard car standing in his laneway near the barn. On approaching the car the occupants gave very sincere apologies saying that they thought they were on a turn of the road. Such a story however did not sound very credible and whether they were chicken thieves or just joy riders can only be guessed.

Re-Opening Services at Zion E. Lutheran Church at Sherwood

Impressive Service Marked the 123rd Anniversary of Historic Church

Sunday, July 14, was a gala day for Zion Ev. Lutheran church, at Sherwood. Record crowds attended both morning and evening services. The church which was recently renovated, was reopened and rededicated to the services of Almighty God.

The pastor in his address of welcome spoke of the great joy of the occasion and greeted those who were present to rejoice with the congregation.

The sermon in the morning was preached by the pastor, Rev. E. W. Heimrich and his subject based on Matt. 21:31 was "Yesterday, To-day and To-morrow." In the passage referred to we are told of the cursing of the fig tree. After reviewing the circumstances in connection with the incident, the speaker said, that the fig tree was cursed because it had no fruit and the lesson that Jesus meant to teach was that those who do not have faith in God shall wither as the fig tree. Faith in God is essential for the disciple of Christ and Jesus adds that to such a faith the removing of mountains, the uprooting of mountains, even mountains like the one that stood before them, the mount of olives is a thing of certainty. All perplexities, all difficulties must yield before the conquering powers of faith. Under the heading "Yesterday" the speaker recalled the early beginnings of the congregation which was founded in 1806. He said that the Lutheran Church was the pioneer Protestant Church in this part of our fair Dominion, and it is interesting to note that this congregation was founded 61 years before Confederation and it is therefore twice as old as the Dominion of Canada. The hardships and trials of the early settlers were alluded to and they were referred to as mountains that stood in the path of progress. They had to be removed and they were removed by the conquering power of faith.

It was stated that the first church was built in 1819 during the pastorate of Rev. J.D. Petersen. After serving for about forty years the old log church gave way to the present edifice which was erected in 1860. Fourteen pastors in all have served the congregation including the present pastor. "As we review the yesterday of this congregation we see that it was a glorious yesterday," said the speaker, "Why was it glorious?—because men had faith, because the mountains were removed by faith."

In speaking of the present, Rev. Heimrich mentioned the fact that the present is our privilege, our opportunity, our responsibility, as the past was the privilege, the opportunity and the responsibility of those who have gone before us. "To-day is the flower of all the past; it contains within itself all the possibilities of the future noteworthy things have been accomplished in the present. It is glorious in many respects. But we would not say that there are no mountains, no barriers to be removed because we strive for perfection not only outwardly, but also inwardly, spiritually."

But what of "To-morrow," the future; we are shaping it, do we realize it? "To-morrow," what can we say of it, it stands behind the curtain of the midnight. But of this let us be fully assured that if in the present we have faith as men in the past have had faith we shall do our share in moulding a future that is well-pleasing to God and that is an honour to those who have gone before us. If we in the present do not have faith, then all the accomplishments of the past and of the present shall wither away. But if we do have faith then we shall help to make the future as glorious as has been the past.

In the evening the sermon was preached by Rev. E.F. Stertz, of Brantford, and his subject was, "The message of our new windows." This was a very appropriate subject because eight memorial windows were included in the improvements made in the church. Mr. Stertz's sermon was based on verses 8,13 of the second chapter of Solomon's Son. The speaker first gave an interpretation of the passage used as his text and then very beautifully likened the message and the call of the new windows to the message and the call of the bridegroom to the bride referred to in the text. Mr. Stertz explained the symbols in the windows; The Font, the Dove of Peace, the Chalice, the Ten Commandments, the Bible, the Lamb upon the Altar, the Descending Dove, the Holy Spirit and the Cross and Crown. The message of Mr. Stertz was both instructive and inspiring.

Rev. Bowman read the evening lesson. Special music was provided at both services by members of St. Johns Young People's Choir, of Waterloo. Mrs. Schmidt, the directress of the choir also sang in the evening. Mr. Lincke, organist of First English Lutheran Church, Kitchener, presided at the organ.

The pastor thanked the visiting friends who contributed so acceptably to the programme, the donors of the memorial windows, the friends who furnished the means to erect a new fence to enclose the cemetery, the ladies aid for its donation, and Miller and Sons, of Concord, for their gift of flowers for the occasion.

The day will be one long remembered by members and friends of the congregation as a milestone in the history of the church.

RADIAL SITUATION REPORTED 'UNCHANGED'

COUNTY COMMITTEE WILL MEET
BOARD OF CONTROL
NEXT WEEK

There is very little new to report this week on the Radial situation although Reeve Lundy of Newmarket, chairman of the County transportation committee said that the negotiations continued to look hopeful. Reeve Lundy and members of his committee were in Toronto on Wednesday to confer with the Board of Control, but the members of that august body as has been noted by press reports had many contentions to deal with and this coupled with the absence of Controller Wemp made postponement of the conference necessary. The city fathers have however asked for more time to consider the whole problem and apparently have been impressed by the arguments of the County Committee. Reeve Lundy has emphasized the danger of substituting busses for radials in the face of present congested traffic conditions. It has been pointed out that to carry the summer traffic now carried on the radials it would demand a bus every ten or fifteen minutes and the congestion which this would cause on North Yonge Street in the City and in the southern part of the county has set the city fathers thinking very seriously. The conference with the Board of Control will probably be held next week and the County Committee and the people of the district are looking forward to a satisfactory solution which will maintain for York County the radial service.

"THOUGHT" COST $25.

An American car whizzed through town on Wednesday night at a speed which the driver later admitted to be forty-five miles per hour. After a thrilling chase he was caught at Schomberg Junction by Constable Barraclough and brought back to town. He frankly admitted he was speeding, and that he knew all about our speed laws, but explained that "he thought he could get away with it." That thought cost him $25.00.
