WEDDING

BEATTY — DONER

A pretty autumn wedding took place on Saturday afternoon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Doner, Centre St., west, when their youngest daughter, Verdella Alberta, became the bride of Robert Clarence Beatty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beatty, of Gormley. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Austin E. Lunau. To the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal chorus played by Miss A. Forester, Gormley, the bride entered with her father and joined the groom beneath an arch of gladioli and asters. She was charmingly gowned in bridal satin, caught with brilliant buckles and her Juliet cap and veil of silk tulle were held by orange blossoms. Her bridal bouquet was of pink and white snapdragons and asters. Miss Mabel Sims made a charming bridesmaid, in reseda green crepe-faced satin with bandeau of tulle in the same shade, and carrying a bouquet of pink asters and cream snapdragons. Little Eileen Mabley, niece of the bride, in a pink organdie dress and pink tulle bandeau was flower girl and carried a basket of pink and white Boltonia. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Frank Beatty. Afterward a buffet luncheon was served to about sixty guests, among them being a great aunt of the bride, Mrs. Urmy who is in her ninety-fourth year, and the grandmother of the groom Mrs. Beatty, of Lefroy, who is eighty five years old.

The happy couple left by motor for a short trip, the bride wearing a gown of beige lace over flat crepe, with shoes in the same tone and navy dwytyn coat with hat to match and a beautiful fox fur, the gift of the groom. The grooms gift to the bridesmaid was a beautiful string of pearls, to the groomsmen a silver eversharp pencil, to the flower girl a beige hat bag, and to the pianist, a bar pin set with amber.

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

THE CHURCH AND SOME OTHER THINGS

"If a man would be a soldier, bid expect of course to fight; And he couldn't be an author, if he didn't try to write, So it isn't common logic, doesn't have a genuine ring, That a man to be a Christian doesn't have to do a thing. If a man would be a hunter, he must go among the trees; And he couldn't be a sailor, if he wouldn't sail the sea, How strange that any member of a church should think that he Can stay away from worship and a worthy member be! Then how is it that some members of the church can set in pews, And expect some few to run it without others paying dues? The cost of operation must be met in church the same As in home or corporation or in work of any name. Let us honestly consider, why this difference we find Between our church relations and every other kind Our business operations must be met, the laws provide; But the church is not insistant; So we let the matter slide.

FAVORS PARKS COMMISSION AND SUGGESTS TOWN PLANNING

Dear Sir,— I was pleased to read the Editorials in your last issue and I hope our Village Councillors will take some action on the matters referred to. I heartily commend your suggestion of a Permanent Parks Commission: it seems to me that Richmond Hill is favorably situated to have an attractive park, I feel sure that some of our Florists and Nursery men (and there are no better anywhere) would be glad to serve on or advise a Parks Commission as to the best means to turn our park into a beauty spot; no doubt this would take time, but a little done every year would soon show results. I even believe Mr. Editor that a town planning commission would be valuable to Richmond Hill—looking toward the future—certainly the present lay out of the village streets does not show any particular planning in the past. I should like the present Council to express their opinions as to the advisability of the Village taking over the Old High School for Municipal purposes as they were not in office, except the Reeve, when the question was up before. Yours truly, "VOTER"
