FREE TRIP TO THE ROYAL WINTER FAIR

On Wednesday, October 23rd, a judging competition including stock, seeds, grain and potatoes will be held in the Newmarket district to determine the 10 York County boys between the ages of 16 and 21 who will be given a 4 days trip to the Royal Winter Fair. This is the third year the Ontario Dept. of Agriculture has offered these valuable prizes. The Dept. of Agriculture pays all expenses from the time the boys leave home until they return. Not only are the boys entertained at the Royal, but an educational tour of the city is included in the programme, when such places as the Stock Yards, abattoirs, and factories are visited. Commercial concerns give banquets and co-operate in entertaining the boys while in Toronto.

This is the competition where most boys make their start in judging work. The C.N.E. give a beautiful shield to the high standing novice. A gold medal is given to the junior farmer who coaches the high team of 3 novices in his township.

Full information may be had upon application to the Dept. of Agriculture, Newmarket.

A SAMPLE OF LARGE POTATOES FROM CARRVILLE

We have displayed in the window of The Liberal Office this week a basket of fine large potatoes which we received from Mr. Lewis Clement, of Carrville. They are an example of the magnitude and proportions to which "spuds" will aspire. Fifteen fill a good sized basket. Mr. Clement reports an excellent crop this year and estimates that he will have 1500 bags from ten acres. The potatoes are of the "Dooley" variety.

VETERANS OF THE FEDERAL RIDING OF NORTH YORK HELD MEETING

A very successful executive meeting of the above Association was held at the Council Chambers, Newmarket on Monday evening, when representatives from all parts of the riding were present.
