CARTER SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

The Department of Education announces that Miss Dora Anderson, of Willowdale, has been successful in winning the third Carter scholarship for York County on her standing at the Honour Matric exams. of June last. Miss Anderson was a pupil of Richmond Hill High School. She is now at Varsity in the English and History course. Teachers and fellow pupils of Richmond Hill High School join in hearty congratulations and best wishes for continued success.

OBITUARY

LATE GEORGE H. LANG

Mr. Lang, who suffered a paralytic stroke on Thanksgiving Day, passed away on Tuesday, November 19th. He was in the 70th year of his age, being born at Binbrook, near Hamilton, in 1860. In his younger years he followed lumbering and milling, and for the past twenty years was in the hotel business in Richmond Hill, Midland and North Bay, coming to the Queen's Hotel here from North Bay eight years ago. His wife died in October of 1924. He is survived by his son, Harry, a partner in the business, and two daughters, Mrs. J. T. Payne, of Moose Jaw, Sask., and Mrs. J. F. McLennan of Midland. A brother and two sisters live in the Orr Lake locality, and a sister in Midland. He was a member of the Orange Order. The funeral was held on Friday to Mt. Pleasant.—Bradford Witness.

MAPLE

One of the best concerts which have ever been given in the village was listened to on Friday evening, when the choir of North Broadview United Church rendered the cantata, "A Song of Thanksgiving." The solos and choruses were exceptionally fine, and the anthems sung at the beginning of the programme were given with splendid effect. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Pritchard was present and acted as chairman.

The Young People's Society of the United Church, of King City presented their play "Aunt Susan's Visit" to quite a large audience on Monday evening. The play is clean and wholesome and everyone was well pleased by the way in which the parts were taken. Miss Grace Stone as Aunt Susan took the leading part, and she was well supported by all the rest of the characters. A number of solos, choruses and readings were given before the play began and also at the close.

The Girls' Club of St. Andrew's Church held a successful bazaar in the Masonic Hall on Saturday. A large number of articles were sold, and afternoon tea was served.

Two events to look forward to are the Bazaar of the W. A. of St. Stephen's Church in the Parish Hall on Saturday, November 30, and the Bazaar of the C. G. I. T. in the Masonic Hall on Saturday, December 7th. Both of these societies are preparing many articles which will be for sale, and will also serve afternoon tea.

Mrs. T. H. Keys is in Toronto attending the Convention of the Ontario Women's Institute as a delegate. Miss Bryan, of Aurora, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. Bryan during the past week.

Beginning next Sunday evening, Rev. A. S. Kerr will preach a number of Christmas Bible story sermons all through December. The first will be The Story of the Inn, Christ Excluded.

Mr. J. T. Saigeon, has been attending the sessions of the County Council in Toronto during the past week.

Mrs. J. A. Chapman, of Port Elgin, is visiting her sister, Mrs. B. Jackson.

HEADFORD

Mr. Freeman Barker, Miss Rhoda Barker, Mr. Frank Barker and family attended the Royal Winter Fair on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bagg were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Wellman on Sunday.

Mrs. Albert Helmky underwent an operation for appendicitis on Friday at the Wellesly Hospital. We hope she will soon be in good health again.

A number of friends and relatives were present at the birthday party of Mrs. M. Brodie on Saturday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. Quantz, Aurora. A very enjoyable time was spent by all present.

We are glad to see Mrs. W. Wellman and son Leonard out again after having been laid up with colds.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Smith and Miss Gwen Smith were visitors of Heise Hill Sunday School on Sunday last.

HEALTH SERVICE OF THE CANADIAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

SHOULD I HAVE AN X-RAY?

It is quite evident that many persons have the idea that in almost every condition from which the human body suffers, an X-Ray examination is required to enable the doctor to understand the case. It is also apparent that there exists a popular idea that, by means of the X-Ray, the physician can see all parts of the inside of the body and study their action just as clearly and simply as he views the skin with his eyes.

The majority of those who enter a doctor's office, whether because they are ill or because they want to keep well, can be examined thoroughly and satisfactorily by the doctor's using such instruments as are found in any properly equipped office and making such tests as can be made, with his ordinary equipment, by any qualified physician.

When the ordinary procedures are inadequate for a particular case, and when the doctor believes that certain special examinations or tests will be of assistance, he will not hesitate to so inform his patient. The public should understand that, in any case, a diagnosis of disease is not made by special tests, X-Ray, or other examinations. What these do is to supply additional information which the doctor considers, together with the other facts which he has gathered from his questioning of the patient and the results of the examination which he himself has made. Physicians do not make a diagnosis on one symptom or one test on what is shown by an X-Ray, but upon the accumulation of all the findings.

The X-Ray is, in many conditions, a most valuable aid to the physician. It has increased its field of usefulness but it still has certain limitations, and its use and the interpretation of its findings are not as simple as is commonly thought. It seems necessary to refer to this because it is apparent that some persons rather feel they have been cheated when their physician does not order them to have an X-Ray. Physicians know when special tests and examinations are needed, and they will use them when they judge them to be necessary.

Questions concerning Health, addressed to the Canadian Medical Association, 184 College Street, Toronto, will be answered personally by letter.

COMMUNITY ADVICE?

WE have from time to time through this community buying page given advice to the residents as to what they owe its merchants, business interests, civic, municipal and national government. You probably will say that it is not the lack of advice, but the superabundance of it that makes life difficult. Young men and women entering business are told by some to save their money and by self-sacrifice accumulate a competence for their old age. Others tell them that the ultimate end of existence is happiness, that they live but once and they had better have a good time while here. There is only one way to find a straight course through this multiplicity of suggestion, and that is to strike a balance somewhere and preserve it. It is true that to accomplish anything really important there must be enthusiasm. This is what we are aiming at in expounding the Community spirit. Enthusiasm helps the growth of your community. It makes you bigger and better. Your belief in your neighbor and merchant keeps you from running wild and makes those outside of your community anxious to become your neighbors. Advice properly followed pays.
