OBITUARY

LATE MRS. NORMAN BOWES

A wave of sadness spread over the community, when it became known that Bertha Leece, wife of Norman H. Bowes passed away at her place of residence at Concord, early Saturday morning, December 28th, 1929. About a month ago the deceased attended the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Edward Leece, Maple and shortly after the birth of her little daughter, she contracted double pneumonia from which she did not recover. The late Mrs. Bowes had a winsome disposition and was very popular in the community of Hope, Maple and Concord. She received her education at Hope, and sang in the Methodist Church choir for a number of years prior to moving to Maple, where she was again active in the choir and other work in the church, also the Women's Institute and in any good enterprise in the community. The pall-bearers all cousins of the deceased were the same as those chosen to carry her mother to interment. The floral tributes were many and beautiful, conveying a message of appreciation for the departed and sympathy for the sorrowing husband, father and close relatives. On December 30th, 1929, at 2 o'clock a private service for the sorrowing relatives was conducted by Rev. Kerr and Rev. Bowman, of Maple at the home of her father, Mr. Edward Leece. The casket was then borne to the United Church where the large congregation sang the hymn "Jesus Lover of My Soul", Rev. Albert Leece, Lambton Mills, cousin of the deceased read, 1 corinthians, 15 chapter and dwelt on the 20th verse, "But now is Christ risen from the dead and become the first fruits of them that slept." Again the congregation sang the hymn, "Forever with the Lord." Rev. Kerr spoke on "The Sound of the Trumpet when the dead in Christ shall rise." The congregation sang, "Jerusalem the Golden" and Rev. Bowman closed with prayer. Interment followed at Thornhill Cemetery. The Liberal joins with the people of the district in extending sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.
