

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

When a bit of sunshine hits ye, After passing of a cloud; When a fit of laughter gets ye, And ye'r spine is feelin' proud, Don't forget to up and fling it At a soul that's feelin' blue, For the minute that ye sling it It's a boomerang to ye. —Capt. Jack Crawford change would not be beneficial to the advancement of this community. Mrs. S. Ash visited her daughter, Mrs. J. Calvert a few days last week. The Public Library of school section No. 8, that was transferred to the Hagerman school, following the destruction of St. John's Church by fire, is now ready for use in the section. This collection of books is unequalled in any library of its size and the generous use of the books is solicited, also the trustees would appreciate the return of any books now out of the library so that the classified list may be fully completed. Mrs. Andrew Grant, Jr., Wexford, visited relatives in town on Tuesday. The funeral service of Mrs. Robt. McKay, of Detroit, formerly of Markham, was held at St. Philip's Anglican Church on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. J. J. Robbins, officiating. Sincere sympathy is extended to her sister Mrs. Jonathan Lunau. Mr. H. S. Reeve, Markham, called on friends in town on Monday last. Mrs. Cassie, Agincourt, visited her daughter, Mrs. E. Stiver on Wednesday. CENTRAL UNITED CHURCH Rev. H. H. "AL" SMITH MUST HAVE WON The following appearing under a speech of Senator Wheeler's in the Washington Congressional Record is not bad: A foreign-born in New York applied for naturalization papers. "Judge," he said, "I would like to become an American." "Very well," replied the Judge. "Before I can make your papers out you will have to answer these questions." "All right, judge." "Who is the Mayor of New York City?" "Mr. Jimmy Walker, your Honor." "Very good. Who is Governor of the State?" "Mr. Roosevelt." "Very good again. Now tell me who is President?" "Al Smith, your Honor." "How do you make that out?" "Well, Judge, they said if Al Smith was elected President we would have a stock market smash, a crime wave, unemployment, plenty of booze, and we sure have them." REESORS MARMILL LIMITED, GIVES EMPLOYMENT TO MANY IN MARKHAM Markham is seeking her place on the map. The residents are endeavouring to emulate those of Oshawa, Peterboro, Stratford, and scores of other reputable cities, which gained them wide recognition by the boosting of local industries. Rome was not built in a day. . . . neither will Markham obtain their desire immediately but the incentive is there. . . . the men, the brains, the money, the products. It but requires time before Markham is recognized as an important industrial centre. The principal industry in Markham (the production of scientifically mixed feeds for dairy, poultry and hogs) is in a very flourishing state. Reesors Marmill Limited gives permanent employment for a number of men and boys. . . . (in addition to office staff) and gives promise to provide further employment in the near future. As this business progresses, so does it provide a bigger market for locally grown grains. That is the secret of local progress. . . . the buying of local products. . . . the patronage of local stores, hotels, garages. . . . keeping the spending money circulating within its vicinities. Sell to the outside world certainly, but buy from within. Markham is doing this.

The largest sugar beet crop on record in Southern Alberta is being harvested in the Raymond district, centre of the industry. About 8,500 acres were sown to sugar beets this year, 2,000 more than in 1928, and the crop will on estimate yield about 65,000 tons or 23,000 above last year's production. Cable advices from London state that Captain Ronald Stuart, V.C., D.S.O., U.S.N.C., R.N.R., commander of the Canadian Pacific liner "Duchess of York" has been officially selected to attend the Armistice Day ceremonies at the Cenotaph in London.
