Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cooper, of London, Ontario, attended the funeral here of their sister-in-law the late Mrs. Cooper on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Burton, of Guelph visited relatives in the village on Sunday. Mrs. R. W. Atkinson came back with them after spending a short time with her daughter, Mrs. Burton at her home near Guelph.

Mr. P. C. Hill, of Richmond Hill Nash Motors, attended the Nash convention held in Chicago this week. Mrs. J. E. Smith and daughters are holidaying with friends in Lindsay. Miss Reesor and Miss Jones spent the week-end with friends in Markham.

Miss Alice Smith, of Queensville, was a visitor over the week-end with relatives in the village. Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Ferguson entertained the lady teachers of the Public and High School teaching staff at their home on Elizabeth Street last Thursday evening.

A miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mr. Frank Line last Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Azala Fierheller. About sixty guests were present and many useful and beautiful gifts were presented to the bride-to-be. Luncheon was served and a social time enjoyed.

Little Miss Elaine Reaman, daughter of Dr. G. E. and Mrs. Reaman, of Bowmanville, formerly of Richmond Hill, passed her Intermediate Examinations in violin at the Conservatory of Music, Toronto, in good standing. Miss Laura Mason, of Hamilton, spent the week-end at her home here.

Mr. R. W. Atkinson who left here about three weeks ago for Florida has arrived there safely and is enjoying the best of weather conditions in that country of sunshine. A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Plewman on Saturday, March 1st, when Mrs. Clark's class, "The United Sunbeams" of the United Church entertained Mrs. Routley's class "Amicus" from the Parkdale United Church to a supper. The evening was spent in games and Miss Eleanor Drury gave two readings and also the guests sang several selections which were enjoyed very much.

MARKHAM

Rev. Simpson, who is at present a resident of Markham, brought an inspiring message to the congregation of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church last Sabbath morning, his subject, "The Good Samaritan"; also a pleasing feature of the evening service was special music contributed by the choir of Locust Hill United Church. Mrs. S. Hoover presided at the organ.

DURANT DAVID HILL & CO. Richmond Hill, Ont.

Mr. James Carrie paid his friends here a short visit over the week-end. Three of our citizens occupying three farms lying together are all under the doctor's care. Two of them Messrs Bertram Boston and William Dennie are well on the road to recovery, while Mr. John Farquharson is very ill, suffering from "Inflammatory Rheumatism." His many friends here wish him a speedy return to his wanted vigors.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. William Dennie is also under the doctor's care. Mr. Gordon Mortson, Misses Ethel Mortson, Marion Agar and Reva Nichols visited at Nashville on Tuesday. Mr. Frank Brumwell visited some of his Scarboro friends on Wednesday. Mr. Harry Bennett attended the sale of Mr. Ira Gooderham on Tuesday and was fortunate in securing a good silo at a very low figure, seven dollars.

Mr. George Wellman, of Toronto, called on some of his friends here on Tuesday. Your correspondent of last week had a little pig story among the news items. All pigs stories don't finish up on the stage. When two Richmond Hill gentlemen were motoring to our corner the other evening, a man with an unruly pig was encountered at a railway crossing. Upon his request for help he received the reply "We are going to a wedding." Now Mr. Editor we are anxious to know when it is to take place.—Later a man who had been to his wedding, played the good Samaritan and the erring pig was returned to its truck. By popular request Victoria Square Players will present again the popular play "Sonny Jane" in the Public Hall, Victoria Square on FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 7th. There will be music between acts by Messrs Chadwick and Thompson. Admission, adults 35 cents; Children 20 cents.

DIED MICHAEL—At the residence of her daughter, Mrs. D. Sutherland, 21 Rose Ave., Toronto, on Wednesday, February 26th, Olivia McGill, beloved wife of Wm. C. Michael, of Markham. The funeral was held on Saturday and interment followed at Markham cemetery. CARD OF THANKS The family of the late Mrs. George Cooper wish to thank the many friends for the many floral tributes and many acts of kindness during their bereavement.

Young People's Society

There was a very good attendance at the Y. P. S. on Monday evening, when Mr. Plewman gave a very interesting and helpful talk on the "Organization of the Church" after which Mr. Thompson gave a talk on the "Financing of the Church." We were also favoured with a piano solo by Miss Olive Wilson. Next Monday evening our society will visit St. Mary's Anglican Y. P. S. where a debate on the Radial Situation will be held between the two societies, a very interesting time is expected. CARD OF THANKS Mrs. Stanley Elson and Mr. and Mrs. Pearce Robinson, of Thornhill, wish to thank their many friends and neighbours for the many floral tributes and for the many acts of kindness during their recent bereavement.
