HE WOULD BE GOING YET
The "bus service" on Yonge Street was blamed on Monday night for the predicament of a well known local resident who lost his latitudinal bearings on North Yonge Street. It seems this gentleman asked the bus driver to let him off at the first stop south of Bond Lake which would be just a little north of his destination.

ing, April 4th. Tickets may be secured from the secretary or members of the Board of Trade.

STOLEN CAR RECOVERED IN TORONTO

A. A. Eden had the unpleasant feeling of visiting his garage early on Saturday morning and finding his Buick sedan gone. Chief Barra-clough was immediately notified and in a short time had the police of the province on the look out. The car was found early on Sunday abandoned on a Toronto Street little the worse for the trip. An auto robe was missing when the car was found, but otherwise appeared O. K. An abandoned Essex car was found on Church Street in the village on Saturday, which proved also to be a stolen car so it is presumed the thieves came as far as Richmond Hill in the Essex and then decided to have a Buick.

MAPLE

A special treat is in store for the members of the Maple Horticultural Society and all are asked to be present at the Masonic Hall, Maple on Monday evening next, March 31st at 8 p. m.
The speaker of the evening will be Miss E. L. Marsh from the Peace-marsh Farm (a bird sanctuary on Georgian Bay) who will give an illustrated talk on "Bird Life." We have been very fortunate in securing Miss Marsh to speak to the Society at this time. Please tell your friends.
Children are welcome. Silver collection.

RICHMOND HILL BAKERY CHANGES OWNERSHIP

On April 1st, Kerr Brothers, formerly of Toronto, take over the Richmond Hill Bakery, which for the past twelve years has been operated by A.
A. Eden. Mr. Eden will continue to reside in town and will take up residence on Church Street.

tin desire to express their sincere thanks and appreciation for the many expressions of sympathy and many acts of kindness extended to them during their recent bereavement.

OBITUARY

LATE ALONZO MARTIN
The death occurred at his home, Centre Street, West, Richmond Hill on Thursday, April 20th, of Alonzo Martin, a well known and highly respected citizen of this community. Mr.
Martin was in his seventy-ninth year and although in ill health for some time, his condition was not considered serious and the news of his death came as a surprise and shock to his many friends. The deceased had been a resident of Richmond Hill for the past nine years, coming here from Toronto and formerly lived at St.
Mary's Ontario.

A service was held at his late residence Friday evening, Rev. Couther and Rev. Wellwood officiating. The funeral was held on Saturday at St.
Mary's where interment took place under I. O. O. F. auspices. Left to mourn besides his wife, Charlotte Martin, are six daughters and two sons.

SUCCESSFUL INSTITUTE CARD PARTY

A very successful bridge and euchre for the benefit of the Library building fund was held in the High School Gymnasium, March 21st. Members and committees of the Women's Institute appreciate the assistance of friends who were very generous in loaning equipment necessary to carry on a large party; also the evidence of interest which was manifested by the large attendance. Prizes were won in bridge by Mr. and Mrs. Yerex, first, consolation by Mrs. Basset and Mr.
Albert Hill. Euchre, Mrs. Bagg and Mr. J. Lynett, first; Consolation, Mrs.
F. Lynett and Mr. R. S. Cooper. The sum of $65.00 was realized after all expenses were paid.
