The annual banquet held at the close of a successful year of the local A.Y.P.A. in the township hall was a decided success with the efficient president Mr. A. M. Hill in charge.

On Friday morning last the entire village and surrounding community were alarmed at fire breaking out in the home of Mrs. Jas. Eckardt, the cause of which has not been ascertained, probably because of a short circuit, threatened the safety of the whole street.

Mrs. Eckardt was not at home at the time, the fire being first discovered by Harry Leadbetter of Markham, who was delivering meat to Mrs. Hawkins. The Unionville brigade responded to the call but found the fire beyond their control, and sent an S. O. S. to the neighbouring towns, the fire reels from Richmond Hill, Maple, Markham, North York and Scarborough came to the scene. For a time it looked that the saving of the nearby houses was an impossibility, but combined forces bringing water from the creek soon had the fire under control.

WEDDING

DALE — WELLMAN

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on May 11th in Grace United Church, College Street, by the Rev. Mr. Barker, when Luella May, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Wellman, Lansdowne Ave., Toronto, became the bride of Mr. William Dale, of Chicago, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Dale, of Toronto. The church was decorated with ferns and peonies. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Mary Dean. The bride was dressed in eggshell satin with tulle veil caught with orange blossoms. She carried butterfly roses and baby's breath. Miss Emma Wellman, sister of the bride was maid of honor and was gowned in mauve crepe with large black picture hat. Miss Muriel Dale sister of the groom acted as bridesmaid and wore a yellow gown of crepe with mohair hat, both carried Columbia roses. Little Miss Norma Wellman niece of the bride was flower girl and wore pink, carrying a basket of sweet peas. Mr. Howard Dale, brother of the groom was best man. During the signing of the register Mr. Roworth, of Toronto, sang, "Oh, Promise Me." After a reception at the home of the bride's parents the happy couple left on a short honeymoon. On their return they will reside in Chicago.

HOPKINS — WEBBER

An interesting wedding took place at the home of the bride's cousins' Mr. and Mrs. David Guthrie, 170 Coleridge Avenue, Toronto, the Rev. Stanley Elliott, of Woodbine Avenue United Church officiating, when Margaret, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Webber, of Langstaff, Ont., became the bride of Mr. John Hopkins, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hopkins, of Langford, Ont. The bride was lovely in a gown of powder blue with trimmings of egg shell with blonde shoes, stockings and gloves to match. Her head was adorned with a wreath of orange blossoms and she wore a bouquet of sweet peas. She was given in marriage by her uncle Mr. Thomas Alexander Orr, of Langstaff, Ont. The wedding march was played by Miss Olive Guthrie, and the attendants were Mr. and Mrs. David Guthrie. After the reception the bride and groom left for their new
