

Careful Inspection!

... Every carload of Anthracite we get from our producers has been carefully inspected by experts who check upon its cleanliness, purity, sizing and appearance.

Our annual spring price reduction on all sizes of Anthracite is now in effect... Fill your bins and save an appreciable amount per ton.

Prepared by a new process, our Anthracite is cleaner and more uniformly sized than most coal. It burns evenly, checks easily and banks well... More smiles per ton was never truer than it is with our coal.

BREAKEY — SMITH

Oak Lake United Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Isabelle Kennedy, youngest daughter of the late William C. and Mrs. Smith of Oak Lake, Man., became the bride of William James Breakey, of Morden youngest son of Mr. John W. Breakey of Thornhill, Ont. Ferns, potted plants and white and mauve lilacs banked the pulpit and made a lovely setting for the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. T. Merryweather, Mr. Gerald Aubin, of Carman, acted as groomsmen and the ushers were Messrs Walter and Ralph Smith, twin cousins of the bride.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Nancy Smith, who wore a very attractive gown of flat crepe in aquatone hue featuring the long skirt with uneven hemline. She wore shoes and gloves of matching shade and a becoming prestige model hat with drooping brim and lace straw medallions. The bride who was given in marriage by her brother, George H. Smith, entered the church to the strains of the bridal music played by Miss Luella Forrest, A. T. C. M. The bride looked charming in a gown of orchid flat crepe with fitted bodice and long uneven skirt bordered with net. The veil of orchid tulle was held by a bandeau of pearls and orange blossoms. The ensemble was completed with shoes and gloves in orchid tones. The bridal bouquet was of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley. During the signing of the register Mrs. Crawford Rose, of Lacedena, Sask., sang "Still as the Night." Following the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

The rooms were decorated with mauve and white streamers and lilacs and the table was centred by the wedding cake. Later Mr. and Mrs. Breakey left by motor for Winnipeg, the bride travelling in a smart silk ensemble suit in two shades of blue, with hat and shoes to match. Mr. and Mrs. Breakey will reside at Morden, where the groom is an assistant superintendent of the Dominion experimental farm. The bride's mother wore a gown of black canton crepe, with corsage of roses, lilies of the valley and fern.

The out-of-town guests included — Miss N. Smith, of Britannia School, Winnipeg; Miss Alice Davis, of Elkhorn. Mrs. C. Rose, of Lacedena, Mrs. B. Sheen, of Brandon; Mr. and Mrs. Bastard, of Harding; Mrs. Ralph Smith of Kemnary and Mrs. Gerald Aubin, of Carman.

Here and There

Statistics gathered by the New Brunswick Government bureau of information and tourist travel show an increase of 25 per cent. in the number of motor tourists from the United States entering Canada at border points of the province starting their vacation in Canada.

His Excellency the Governor-General of Canada will extend his patronage to the Canadian Pacific series of concerts of British and Canadian music to be given across Canada, beginning in September and continuing until Spring of 1930, according to information given out by J. Murray Gibbon, general publicity agent of the railway.

Fishing bowed to chivalry one day recently at St. Ignace Island, Canadian Pacific angling resort in the Georgian Bay, when Judge B. Williams of Jackson, Mich., got a bite simultaneously with his wife, both fishing from the same boat. The guide couldn't handle the canoe so that both anglers would have a chance to land a fish, so the judge put pressure on his catch which broke away. Mrs. Williams, after a half-hour fight landed a fine fish.
