A beautiful bouquet of poppies in our window this week is from the garden of George Caldwell, Richmond Street. Mr. Caldwell although seventy-one years old, or rather should we say sev enty-one years young has one of the best gardens in this district. His fame as a grower of flowers and vegetables is well-known and a visit to his well kept garden is a pleasure which many local residents have enjoyed during the past week.

Even the Chief of Police is not immune from the activities of offenders against the law. Tuesday night Chief Barraclough had his car ransacked by unknown visitors who stole his flashlight and numerous articles stored in the pockets of the car.
