Last Thursday evening at seven thirty o'clock the first car travelled over the North Yonge Railways to mark the resumption of a street car service on Yonge Street as far as Richmond Hill since the METROPOLITAN ABANDONMENT last March. On the first car were members of the Toronto Transportation Commission, T.T.C. executives, Warden Farr of the County of York, Reeves, Deputy-Reeves, and councillors of the municipalities of North York, Markham, Vaughan, and Richmond Hill and municipal officials of these municipalities and a handsomely decorated car. The official car was preceded by a car carrying the Aurora Band which supplied suitable music at the City Limits and along the route. At Toronto a red, white and blue streamer across the track was cut by Reeve J. Muirhead, of North York, with a pair of golden scissors pesented to him by Commissioner McBrien of the T.T.C. The car was greeted with cheers of jubilant citizens a-enjoyed a game of softball. After the game Reeve Gohn presided and short speeches were made by Mr. Tate, assistant manager of the
