When an intellectual says you can train your daughters right and needn't worry about temptations, he hasn't any daughters.

VAUGHAN AND RICHMOND HILL AGREE TO ENGAGE NURSE

At a joint meeting of the Vaughan council and a committee of the Richmond Hill Board of Health held this week it was agreed to engage a Public Health Nurse for the coming year. The expense will be shared between the two municipalities with Vaughan paying eighty per cent. and Richmond Hill paying twenty per cent. The total cost for the two municipalities is $1,500. and of this Vaughan will pay $1200. and Richmond Hill $300. A nurse will be engaged at once and will commence duties with the beginning of the school year in September.

ONE CASE OF INFANTILE PARALYSIS IN VAUGHAN

One case of Infantile Paralysis was reported in Vaughan Township this week. The victim is a five year old girl at Elders' Mills but her condition this morning was reported as very favorable. The case was caught early and the serum administered before the dread disease had made much progress. Strong hopes are held out for the recovery of the girl.

INJURED MAN IDENTIFIED — WORKED FOR D. W. CLUBINE

The pedestrian struck and severely injured by a hit and run motorist at the north end of the village on Sunday night was identified in the Toronto General Hospital by D. W. Clubine, of Markham Township, as his hired man, Mac Stein. Stein is 42 years of age and had been in the employ of Mr. Clubine but a short time. He formerly lived in the United States. Although suffering from serious injuries and in a critical condition Stein is showing improvement and hopes are held out for his recovery. H. D. Moore of Queensville, said by police to be the driver of the car which hit Stein is under arrest having been chased and caught by constable Coles in Aurora. Moore it is said claims that he was unaware he had struck anyone.
