MILK DELIVERY HIT TWICE MONDAY MORNING
Don Tennyson driver of the Richmond Hill Dairy wagon who suffered head injuries when the truck he was driving early Monday morning was hit by another car is progressing favorably.

When driving south with a truck load of milk, the truck was suddenly struck from behind by the taxi and hurled into the ditch. Constable Reid who investigated the crash, rushed Tennyson to Dr. Wesley of Thornhill, where medical attention was rendered. He was removed to his home later. Chas. Cowie, the owner of the truck escaped uninjured.

Earlier in the morning Tennyson escaped injury in a similar accident, when a car crashed the back of his milk wagon, hurling him through the front and on to the back of his horse. The horse was injured and wagon badly smashed. Tennyson then secured a truck with which to finish his work. The injured man has been particularly unfortunate this year having figured in four accidents during recent months. The Richmond Hill Dairy delivery has likewise suffered many mishaps of late.

Taking the Cream
In cleaning Anthracite by the new process, the coal rises to the top like cream. The producers take only this cream for the quality we supply to our customers.
Easiest to handle; safest to store; quietest to burn; cheapest to use—Anthracite is by all odds the best all 'round fuel for home heating comfort.
Prepared by the new process, our Anthracite is cleaner, more uniform in size and lower in ash content. Your bin filled now will insure the utmost in comfort next winter.
