Garage Entered and Car Stolen

THREE YOUTHS CAPTURED AT PORT CREDIT AFTER JOY RIDE TO MONTREAL.

The garage of Little Brothers, North Yonge Street, Richmond Hill was visited by thieves on Monday night. The whole place was ransacked by the intruders who apparently took their time doing the job. A considerable amount of cash was taken, a new Ford Coupe, and a few odd car accessories. Admission to the building was gained through a window.

Chief Constable Sid Barraclough was notified first thing Tuesday morning and immediately a net was spread throughout Ontario in an effort to catch the thieves. Police in practically all Ontario towns and cities were notified of the theft and given a description of the missing car. Wednesday night, Port Credit police notified Chief Barraclough that they had the missing car and the parties who admitted doing the job.

Three youths giving Toronto addresses, one aged seventeen and two aged fourteen were taken into custody at Port Credit on a charge of purse snatching and it was found their car corresponded with the description of the one stolen from here. After questioning the youths are said to have admitted their guilt for the robbery here. The seventeen year old lad shouldered all the blame claiming that he did the job single handed and picked up his companions afterwards. The trio had a joy ride to Montreal and on their return their money exhausted they resorted to purse snatching which was the means of their capture.

After facing charges of theft in the Hamilton court, the boys will be brought to Richmond Hill to face charges arising out of the Monday night robbery.

One evening last week Lewis Clement found one of his brood sows missing. After a long search the animal was found contentedly rooting her way under the wall of the henhouse. This resulted in the "lady" being presented with a few rings. The next day,

At noon she was missing again and several hours search was fruitless. Twenty-four hours later a search in the barn revealed the pig buried under several loads of alsike.
