

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

THE CAMPER

Night 'neath the Northern skies, lone and black and grim. Naught but the starlight lies twixt heaven and him. Of man no need has he, of God, no prayer; He and his Deity are brothers there. Above his bivouac the firs fling down Through branches gaunt and black, their needles brown, Afar some mountain streams, rock bound and fleet. Sing themselves through his dreams in cadence sweet. The pine trees whispering, the heron's cry, The plover's passing wing, his lullaby, And blinking over head the white stars keep Watch o'er his hemlock bed—his sinless sleep.

PAULINE JOHNSON.

The regular meeting of the Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. N. Ogden on Thursday, Sept. 4th. An address by Mrs. E. E. Braithwaite, a reading by Mrs. Pollard, "Your favorite pickle and how to make it" in answer to the Roll Call, promises an interesting program. A cordial invitation is extended all ladies to come and enjoy this interesting meeting.

In spite of prevailing unfavorable weather conditions, the sixth annual flower, fruit and vegetable exhibitions of the Horticultural Society, held in the Township Hall on Saturday afternoon and evening was a decided success. Although the entries made were less than previous years, the judge, Mr. E. Grainger proclaimed the quality excellent. The fine exhibit of Gladioli by Harvey Coulson receiving special mention. Other prize winners were, for the best village residential surrounding, Mrs. C. H. Stiver; best farm home surrounding, Miss Rozena Hord. In various exhibits, Mrs. Henry Ogden, Mrs. N. Ogden and Mrs. Leslie Miller captured many prizes. It is regretted that the exhibits in the juvenile section were so limited. But the beginning this year may bring a complete list of entries in all classes at the next exhibition. However the children are to be commended on the quality of entries and the care taken in arranging for exhibit. Dorothy Hurrell won the special prize for winning the greatest number of points, with Lloyd Rudkin and Ruby Luman tie for second place.

The illustrated lecture given in the evening by Mr. Grainger, was most interesting and rated the best yet. Interspersed with fine music by the Spear's Stringed Orchestra, left nothing to be desired in the program of this splendid event. Fred Leaf is President, and Alex Bell Secy-Treas. of this live organization.

MARKHAM

6th LINE NEWS

Miss B. Stinson, who formerly taught school here and boarded with Mrs. J. Miller, has been the latter's guest for the last week, returning home last Tuesday.

Mrs. C. Lehman of Delhi, Miss Marjorie Bassingthwaite of Brantford, Misses Marjorie, Doreen and Gladys, Lehman and Miss Luella Gayman, visited with Mr. and Mrs. H. Houck one day last week.

After a two months stay around these parts, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Carruthers and family are now on their return trip to Los Angeles.

The ladies around this vicinity spent a very enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. Wm. Carruthers last Thursday when they met to spend possibly the last evening for some time with Miss S. M. Gee. The large room was decorated very appropriately in pink and white. A small table attractively decorated which was placed in the centre of the room was laden with the overplus parcels that were also wrapped in pink and white paper.

Above the table was a large white bell from which streamers of white and pink tissue paper hung, draping gracefully around the edge of the table.

Miss Gee arrived after all other guests had been seated and was placed in the centre of the room. Just then little Bruce Carruthers from Toronto appeared from somewhere unseen before, with a very handsomely decorated express wagon resembling a motor car. The cab which was filled with parcels was of pink and white paper. This 'California car' could also boast of up to date fenders made of paper and at the front and rear could be seen the California license plate. It was altogether very effectively worked out and some one evidently spent no little time arranging this car that Bruce so proudly pulled in to be relieved of its parcels by the 'bride to be.' The gifts were then opened and passed around the room and after many comments they were again removed to another room. At this time the future groom was brought in and introduced to the ladies after which each one greeted the surprised couple with hands full of confetti. Mr. Kenneth Carruthers of Los Angeles then favoured them with music and a party lunch followed. Miss Gee, who taught the school here for the last two years will be greatly missed by all when she leaves for her future home in California. Her many friends wish her the very best of happiness in the future.

Those of the Melville Guild who were looking forward to that jolly trip to Bowmanville last Friday, had to be disappointed as there were so many who couldn't go, owing to threshing in the neighbourhood. Looks as if the busy time is not yet over with. It is feared that the evenings will soon be cold for the long ride in the open truck so it may have to be cancelled altogether for this year. Apparently the Guild either don't know the old saying, 'when joy and duty crash, let duty go to smash', or else they don't believe in it.

Mr. W. Lehman had a mid-night drive last week for some unfortunate boys whose car broke down just this side of Island Lake. Not so pleasant to be routed out at that hour of the night for such a trip. However, there was one thankful man who snored on and on while the telephone was arousing every one else on the line, thus he missed the adventure, lucky boy!

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wideman visited at their sons Mr. and Mrs. Harry Widemans last Sunday.

Mr. Normal Lotton spent last Sunday evening at the home of Mr. R. Mortson as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tate and family, Miss Edna Houck, Mrs. M. Houck, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Houck, Mr. A. Parish and Mr. E. Myers motored to Maple last Friday evening to an ice cream social at Mr. P. Putterbaughs.

The attendance at Melville Church last Sunday evening was somewhat improved upon and a number of visitors were present. We hope this will continue and in this way encourage the Minister, Rev. J. McNeill.

Cutting Down Travel Time

No matter how anxious travellers may be to spin out their holiday to the ultimate minute they always manifest a certain amount of impatience when once they have left their ship and the formalities of Customs inspection necessitate a slight delay on the pier. To overcome this the Canada Customs at Montreal and the Canadian Pacific Steamships are co-operating in a new service to incoming passengers. On the four palatial 20,000-ton Duchess liners Duchess of Atholl, Duchess of Bedford, Duchess of Richmond, and Duchess of York, the largest liners to sail direct to Montreal, Customs officers, baggage checkers, and porters board the ship at Quebec. Customs examination of heavy luggage is carried out on the ship during the 10-hour voyage from Quebec to Montreal, baggage is checked through to its destination and the passenger is enabled to walk off the ship, pause but a moment while hand-baggage is looked over, and proceed direct to the waiting train. Photos show scenes at the inauguration of the new service on the Duchess of Richmond recently. Invoice in hand the fair traveller is telling the inspector how much the package cost. The honeymooners, customs inspection over, are checking their trunk—judging by the length of the tickets they must be going to Banff, at least.

Hope you had a good time

On your vacation. Would suggest that you bundle up the family wash—that which you brought home, together with what dad and the boys used while you were away—and send it to us. To do this will make your homecoming more pleasant and relieve you of one of your greatest worries. We have five different kinds of family wash service from which you may choose—all done in soft water without marking or starching. Let us tell you about our low prices. Phone to-bay or stop any of our courteous drivers.
