

OBITUARY

LATE CHARLES BALBONE
The funeral of the late Charles (Shorty) Balbone, of Carrville Road, who died suddenly in Richmond Hill, on Tuesday, September 16th, was held from his late home on Saturday afternoon. A veteran of the World War with a very creditable record for the duration of the hostilities he was widely known and his death was a great shock to the community. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. A.E. Lunau of the Richvale church and was attended by large numbers of friends and military associates. A wealth of floral tributes testified to the esteem in which he was held and included wreaths from the Amputation Association of Toronto; Veterans organizations, fellow employees at the Arena, the church and associate friends of Richmond Hill. Interment took place at the Richmond Hill cemetery with six comrades of the deceased acting as pall-bearers. The Liberal joins with the community in expressing sincere sympathy to the bereaved family which includes his widow and a niece Miss Florence Karas.

One of the annual events, in which much interest is shown, is the Harvest Home Sunday, observed by Zion Lutheran Church. The services have become so popular that the church is usually filled. By the interest already manifested, indications are that these services will be as attractive and beneficial as ever. The choir is preparing to sing appropriate anthems. The pastor, Rev. E. Heimrich, will preach special sermons for the occasion. The morning service will be held at 11 a. m. and the evening service at 7 p. m. We are confident that these services will be helpful to you, and for that reason, extend to all a most hearty invitation.
