COGHILL — AIMER

A pretty wedding took place at Thornhill on Saturday evening at the home of the parents of the groom, when Miss Elsie May Aimer, daughter of Mrs. W. T. Aimer became the bride of Mr. David Coghill, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Coghill, Thornhill. The Rev. Mr. O. E. Crockford, of Toronto, officiated. The bride given away by Mr. Palmer wore white champagne with a veil of silk net which formed a train caught with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of butterfly roses. The bride was attended by Miss Margaret Coghill sister of the groom, who wore blue celanese and carried a bouquet of Columbia Roses. Mr. Arthur Palmer, assisted as best man. After the wedding the happy couple left for the east on their honeymoon and after their return will reside in Toronto.

THORNHILL W. A.

The fall opening of the Thornhill Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. F. Simpson on September 18th. Mrs. J. Pearson, president took charge of the meeting. The roll call was well responded to with "What I enjoyed most at the exhibition." Rev. N. H. Noble gave a very interesting address on "The Simple Life." Miss Barker contributed several vocal solos which were very much appreciated.

A very enjoyable time was spent on Monday evening, September 22nd at the home of Mrs. Wm. Milne, 7 Playter Cres., when about forty friends gathered to honour Miss Margaret Milne by presenting her with a miscellaneous shower. The bride, on entering the room, was led to a chair over which hung the customary wedding bell. She received many useful and beautiful gifts and in a few appropriate words thanked her friends for their expressions of kindness. A social time followed, and all spent a very pleasant evening.

Mrs. Robt. Scott and Mrs. Norman Porter attended the shower held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Milne in honor of her eldest daughter Margaret on Monday evening.

WEDDING

ROSS — BATTY

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Burr, Markham Road, Richmond Hill on Wednesday, September 24th, when Mary Evelyn, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Batty was united in marriage to Harry Bruce Ross, son of the late Mr. H. Ross and Mrs. Ross, of Mount Albert. Rev. William Batty brother of the bride officiated.

The bride was attractively gowned in LeVin green transparent velvet with shoes to match and carried ophelia roses and lily of the valley. Miss Francis Jean Batty, R.N., sister of the bride attended as bridesmaid and wore Hunters' green georgette and lace with shoes to match and carried a beautiful bouquet of Richmond Roses. Mr. Frank Ross attended his brother as best man.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. A. Ashford, sister of the groom and during the signing of the register Mr. Perce L. Scott of Toronto, sang "When God Gave You to Me." After a tasty buffet luncheon the happy couple left amidst the good wishes on a honeymoon trip to Muskoka and northern points. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Ross will live in Toronto.

HILL — LILLIE
