Newtonbrook

The Harvest Festival is being held at Newtonbrook United Church next Sunday, October 5th. The morning service at 11 o'clock will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. H. Halbert and the service at 7 p. m. will be in charge of Rev. G. E. Coulter, of Richmond Hill. At both services the choir will render special Harvest Home music and the church will be suitably decorated. Everybody welcome.

Harvest Home Supper and Concert
The Woman's Auxiliary of the United Church are having a Harvest Home hot supper and grand concert following on Thursday, October 9th. Supper will be served from 5.30 to 8 o'clock. The following artists will contribute to the program:—Soprano, Miss Jean McLean; Contralto, Mrs. Florence Bruce Reaney; Baritone, Mr. Wm. Ferguson; Elocutionist, Miss Emma McLan; Violinist, Mr. Carson, W. Martin; also the St. Agnes Church Quartette. Admission to both supper and entertainment, Adults 50c. and Children 25c. Come early and procure a good seat.

A meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held Thursday, Oct. 2nd at 3 p. m. A full attendance is requested.

Mrs. W. L. Wells, Mrs. A. H. Halbert and Mrs. Arnold Douglas attended the Presbyterian W.M.S. meeting at Richmond Hill.

The Y.P.S. have arranged to hold a weiner roast next Monday evening. All new members will be very welcome. The program committee will see that all will have a happy time.

The Home and School Club met last Thursday evening at the school, with a large attendance. Mrs. Marsh was in the chair. Rev. A. H. Halbert conducted the devotional exercises. A splendid program followed; also the election of officers, Mrs. A. W. Galbraith was elected president and Mrs. Lockyer, vice-president; Mrs. Booth, Secretary, and Mrs. J. R. Smith, treasurer. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

The monthly meeting of the Sabbath school teachers and officers of the United Church Sunday School will be held at the home of the Superintendent, Mr. J. R. Smith, 51 Drewry Ave. on Thursday evening, October 2nd at 8 o'clock. All interested in Sunday school work are invited to attend.

Successful Rally Day Services

Very successful Rally Day Services were held last Sunday morning. A processional hymn was sung, as the Sunday School children filed in and occupied the centre seats, but these were soon filled and some of the side front seats were also used while the remaining side seats were occupied by the congregation. The superintendent, Mr. J. R. Smith assisted the pastor with the worship service in a very capable way. Two boy scouts Hicks Smith and Maurice Brett took up the offering. Miss Mary Shaw gave the picture talk. Rev. A. H. Halbert gave the main address. He stressed the importance of "Reverence" in the worship service. Mention was made of the great loss sustained in the death of the late Rev. Dr. Robertson for twenty-five years a leader in Sunday School and Young People's work. A moment of silence was paid in loving tribute. The choir sang a suitable anthem. Much credit is due the teachers and superintendent; also Mr. Hill and Miss Good who rehearsed the Sunday School, thus making Rally Day a real success.

There will be a promotion service held during the Sunday School hour next Sunday. A very interesting exercise will be given by the tiny tots under the supervision of Mrs. J. R. Smith, cradle roll superintendent and Mrs. A. W. Galbraith.

Help swell the attendance at Sunday School by your presence. Parents are cordially invited to come with the children. The bible class will welcome you. 10 o'clock is the Sunday School hour.

Mr. G. R. Goulding and Mr. Harry Smith returned last Saturday from a motor trip to Halleybury.

The Polly Anna Club will meet at the home of Miss Eva Lockyer on Tuesday, October 7th at 8 p. m. A china shower will be held that evening for the bazaar, which will take place on November 4th.

A song service was enjoyed last Sunday evening previous to the worship service. Would you hand your favourite hymn to the organist Mr. Harry Hill. The next song service will be Sunday evening, October 12th.

On Sunday, September 21st, there was a short organ recital before the evening service by Mr. Hill. The following compositions were given:—March Militant (Dawre); Choral 6th organ Sonata (Mendelsohn); The Rosary (Nevin); St. Francis's D'Arise (W. H. Jude.)

Miss Doris Goulding left last Tuesday for Ninette, Manitoba, where she has secured a position as dietitian in the Manitoba Sanitarium. We are very sorry to lose her from our midst. But we wish her every success in her work.

The Mission Band met last Monday at 4.15 p. m. at the church with a very good attendance, but room for more. The next meeting will be held on Monday, October 13th and will be a work meeting.

Harvest Home Services Held at Zion United Church

Harvest Home Services were held at Zion United Church last Sunday, September 28th, with a good attendance, several former members being present from a distance. Special music was given by the Pike family and was very much enjoyed at both services. The pastor, Rev. A. H. Halbert conducted the afternoon service. His theme was "Our responsibility in the building of the Christian Church." Before the sermon Mr. Halbert sang a solo "Building for Eternity." The evening service was taken by Rev. W. F. Hassard (assistant pastor of Eglington Ave. United Church, Toronto). His subject was "The Love of Christ."

The service was concluded by the hymn "O Love that will not let me go," by Dr. W. E. Matheson. On Monday evening there was an entertainment and a very splendid program given.

Mrs. F. Summers and Mrs. H. Smith were delegates to the W. A. Rally held in Yonge Street United Church last Tuesday afternoon.
