FINE PRODUCE OF DISTRICT SHOWN IN LIBERAL OFFICE WINDOW

Many products of the field and orchard of rare size and excellence have been shown us this week. Two cauliflowers grown in Blythwood Gardens were given us by councillor Henry Davis and while in our window were much admired for their size and whiteness. One weighed 5 pounds, which was rather exceptional for this year which has not been very favorable for cauliflowers. A Victoria apple grown in the orchard of Mrs. J. Hart, Arnold Street, is now in our window. It measures 14 inches in circumference and weighs 15 ounces. Three fine carrots the products of Kingsview Gardens, King City are also shown, their combined weight being 4 pounds 3 ounces. If you have anything to beat these bring them along. We are still waiting to display the largest potato grown in this district.

Woodbridge

Woodbridge Fair for 1930 is an event of the past, and to say the least it was some fair, both from the standpoint of entries, exhibits, and attendance. Never since the fair was established at Sherwood more than 75 years ago, has everything worked so harmoniously for its success. Weather conditions were ideal, good prizes were offered, and exhibitors as well as spectators came from distant points until every available bit of space was occupied by livestock and motor cars. The crowd was so thick around the race track, the midway, and main hall, that they seemed to be cemented together, and one was forced to elbow his way through, and when home going time arrived it took two hours to empty the grounds, and clear the way for traffic. Leading exhibitors were: Albert Hewson, Malton; Dawson Nattress, Malton; John H. Kellam, Nashville, in draft horse classes. J. Bagg Edgeley, in Jersey cattle; Stanley Watson in Holsteins; James Elliott, Woodbridge; W. E. Lansdell and J. Slein, Hillsbury, in Ayshire cattle; R. McCleary, Edgeley, Guernseys; and Stanley Gardhouse, thorough-bred Shorthorns. There was an immense large exhibit of sheep, pigs and poultry.

Young People Meet

The Young People's Society of the United Church met on Monday night, the second Vice-President, Miss Esther Bessey, presided, and a splendid program of music, instrumental and vocal, readings, etc., was a feature. A guitar solo by Miss Mary Stevenson, Mr. E. W. Shore gave a vocal number, and a paper read by Miss Bessie Nattress was interesting. A reading on Medical Missionary work in Canada by Winifred Kinnee, a piano selection by Miss Margery Blake, and a contest brought the evening to a close.

Eber Kaiser Dies

Word has just been received from Calgary of the death of Eber Kaiser, which occurred on Monday afternoon. Mr. Kaiser was a son of the late John and Mrs. Kaiser, pioneers in Vaughan. He was born in the Woodbridge district seventy-two years ago, and lived here until twenty years ago when he moved West to Calgary. Deceased is survived by his wife who was Mary Jeffrey, his son Nelson, of Calgary, one sister Mary, of Woodbridge, and a brother Harvey, of Flint, Mich.

Levi Kaiser Buried

The funeral of Levi Kaiser whose death occurred in St. Joseph's Hospital on Friday night, October 10th, took place from J. J. Deane's Funeral Parlours on Monday afternoon last, with interment in Nashville cemetery. The late Mr. Kaiser had been an invalid for a number of years and his death was not unexpected. He was a son of the late Samuel and Susan Burkholder Kaiser, early settlers in Vaughan, and was born at Woodbridge sixty seven years ago, where he lived, and followed the trade of house decorator in early life. About thirty years ago he took to farming and moved to the Kleinburg district, where he continued to live until his death. Mr. Kaiser was a liberal in politics, and a member of the United Church. He is survived by his wife and nine children, four sons and five daughters. Rev. S. T. J. Fortner of Kleinburg was the clergyman in charge of the burial service.

Woodbridge citizens band, although organized but a few months, was an attractive feature of the fair. They were ably assisted by a clown who in burlesque style of a Highlander played the scotch pipes very well.

Mrs. J. Cameron, of Toronto, who lived here many years ago, and Mr. Mike Burkholder, of Detroit, were fair visitors and guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Longhouse.

One could not resist the smiles of the Fair Board and President D. C. Longhouse, carried all day because of the big success of the show. Mr. Longhouse although approaching the octogenarian class worked hard parking cars and directing traffic in the grounds besides attending to details of the Fair.

Visitors from Brampton at Miss Mary Burton's were, Dr. Frank and Mrs. Vanderlip, Mrs. Wm. Dennison, Messrs. Harry Dennison and Art Fletcher.
