Father Kelly himself was the celebrant of High Mass, with Rev. Robert P. Walsh, a former classmate, acting as deacon, and Rev. J. C. Carberry of Toronto as sub-deacon. Others taking part were: Rev. H. J. Murray, of St. Monica's Church, Toronto; Rev. E. J. Canning of Grimsby; Rev. A. E. McQuillan of St. Catharines and Rev. M. J. Nealon of Oshawa.

During the service Father Kelly was the recipient of two presentations one from the Clergy made by Rev. Nealon and one on behalf of the parishioners of Richmond Hill, Thornhill and Lansing made by J. A. Greene and Thomas Hughes. Each presentation consisted of a purse of silver and handsomely bound address. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Father Treacy, D.D., who paid high tribute to Father Kelly and the splendid work which has marked his twenty-five years as a priest. Father Kelly first served as curate under Dr. Treacy at Dixie.

Following the service a banquet was served in the Masonic Hall at which prominent visiting clergy were among the speakers.

Wednesday evening Father Kelly was further honored by a complimentary banquet tendered him by friends and associates at the Carls-Rite Hotel Toronto. Over two hundred attended and among the guests were prominent members of the clergy including His Grace Most Rev. McNeil, D.D., J. A. Greene, of Richmond Hill ably presided as toastmaster and the speakers included James E. Day, K.C. Most Rev. Neil McNeil, His Honor Judge Lee, H. C. McDermott, Rev. J. P. The gathering was a remarkable tribute to Father Kelly from his parishioners in this district, from Toronto friends, and from his associate members of the clergy.
