During his early days he made the friendship of Miss Edna Empringham and this friendship grew and culminin spring of 1923. He and his older brother Roy were both married that

At that time he took over the farm of his father and from that time has conducted it most successfully. A few months ago he rented the other 100 acre farm from his father. Before his illness he had well nigh completed the fall work on both farms. On October 18th, he complained of illness and consulted his physician on the phone and on Sunday his doctor visited him twice. On Monday he was removed to the General Hospital, where everything possible was done to restore him, but to no avail and or October 31 he passed on.

The funeral service was held at his home on Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. P. Peacock and Rev. W. Haig. The funeral cortege was one of the longest ever witnessed in this community, there being in all about one hundred and fifty cars required to carry those who met to pay their last respects. The bearers who carried the corpse to its last resting place were, Messrs Harry Barber, Heber McCague, Harvey Collard, James Smith, Harold Mortson and Nelson Boynton.

His newly filled grave lies under a bank of flowers the mute expression of the regard held for Clarence.

Clarence leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, two bright children, Mervin six, Margaret four, his father and mother, three sisters, Miss Olive Glover, Mrs. Herbert Boynton, Toronto; Mrs. Lawson Mumberson, Toronto, two brothers, Roy and Joseph.

The sympathy of the whole community is extended to the bereaved family.

Richmond Hill citizens are reminded There was a large attendance out that another Poppy Day will be here Saturday, November 8th and the tagday evening to hear Mr. W.W.A. gers from down south (North York Trench, who gave a very interesting Township) will be out in full force-Mrs. Rankin who is well known in Richmond Hill has been appointed captain in the Hill district and any courtesy shown her and her workers on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in- will be deeply appreciated. The proceeds are used to relieve distress in any ex-service man's family and you all know the need for same during these times. The poppy is the emblem of sacrifice not only of those who paid the Supreme Sacrifice but of those who toil on now, broken in body and more often broken in spirit. These men rallied to your cause in 1914-18; won't you rally to their cause now? Buy a Poppy. Wear a
