GENERAL NEWS AND VIEWS

Six weeks until Christmas.

The Bracebridge Board of Trade proposes having a community Christmas tree and has voted $100 to the project.

The Bradford council has purchased a piano for the town hall, while the council chamber and court room has been enlarged to twice its size.

The Meaford council for 1930 established a record at its last meeting when it passed a snow plowing account for October.

Some weeks of fine weather may be expected if the activities of the industrious beaver are an accurate indication, says The Midland Free Press. Wood experts state that the little animals up to the present have not made the usual preparation for winter, and in view of this the freeze-up is not expected for some time.

Due to Sagacity of their dog Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Watson, of St. Thomas are alive today. The animal aroused Mrs. Watson, who was in a semi-stupor or her husband being unconscious from coal gas fumes in their home. They were both revived by oxygen. A well cared for dog, or any other house pet, will not forget his master when he is in trouble and this is only one incident when such animals have displayed their faithfulness.

"All firs and conifers have a deeper green and are more fresh looking than usual. Look out for a cold winter," said an old time observer to The Liberal this week.

The Orillia Board of Trade has purchased 1,000 copies of Stephen Leacock's book, "The Economic Prosperity of the British Empire," and has sent a copy to every member of the British House of Commons to promote intra-Empire trade.

The building of a new public school has been suggested in Meaford for relieving unemployed situation, and a representation from the town council interviewed the Government last week in an effort to get assistance. Richmond Hill will shortly need additional school accommodation.

It is estimated that the gasoline tax will net Ontario Government ten million dollars for this year. Another stirring example of "hard times" in this province.

The western girl who killed a bear with a rolling pin probably killed her chances of getting a husband at the same time.

NEW LYRIC MODEL IS PROVING POPULAR

Lyric Radio has made another distinctive advance in the industry by producing a miniature receiver with features usually associated only with the larger sets — Screen-grid tubes, tone control and so forth.

The product of Mohawk Radio Limited, of Toronto, the newest design is known as the "Studio Model." It is in an attractive cabinet 21 inches wide and 18 inches high and is proving most popular all over Canada.

The Lyric Studio Model is being shown here by Harold Reid's Service Station, Elgin Mills.

6th LINE NEWS

A number from here attended the very interesting service Sunday night at Victoria Square on the occasion of the 50th anniversary. Especially interesting was the splendid address given by Mr. Lacey who has recently visited the Holy Lands. Those present were held spell-bound, so perfectly did he picture some of the hall-owed places, so kept from the time of our Saviour and facts he related of the Passion Play, etc. Those who were not there missed a great deal indeed.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wideman had tea with Mr. Ed. Nighs on Sunday.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. E. Nigh is suffering from neuralgia these days. Hope it won't be for long.

Mr. Willis Lehman's motored to Zephyr on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Marjorie Lehman spent Saturday at her home in Almira.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mortonson visited at Victoria Square on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stots and son Milfred spent Thanksgiving at Mr. Wm. Stots.

Mr. Paigne, a former minister at Bethesda preached a fine Thanksgiving sermon at Melville on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Earl Tate and family spent Monday at Mr. Harvey Houcks.

Mr. Wm. Stots spent the week-end at home.

Mr. Clarence Wideman called at Mr. Ed. Nigh's Sunday evening.

We can listen for the wedding bells any time now. You know they always follow diamonds.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Houck visited Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Klees on Sunday.

The Westminster Guild was held last Wednesday night and a good programme was enjoyed by all. The subject for the evening being on Thanksgiving and special singing was rendered by Miss Luella Gayman, of Stouffville.

Choir practice was held at the home of Rev. McNeal last Friday evening. A full turn out with the exception of two or three who found it impossible to attend, enjoyed a good social evening as well.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Topham are again settled in their own home after being with the latter's mother for some time.

We are sorry to report that Miss Ellen Brown has not been in very good health.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid Brumwell spent the Sunday at Mrs. W. Forresters.

Mr. Stiver, of Unionville visited the Sunday school on Sunday and gave a short talk. Mr. Stiver had been blind for three years and now having regained his sight, truly has much to be thankful for. Do we appreciate as we should our common gifts? Too often we are like the little boy whose Sunday School teacher on a Thanksgiving day was reminding him of the things he had for which to be thankful and turning up his nose said, "Oh that's nothing to be thankful for all the other boys have that."

FRIENDSHIP

Just a tiny thread in the weave of life,
But a thread of the purest gold.
That will burnish and shine through all the days,
When life tapestry grows old.
When the pattern of life has faded,
The fabric in decay.
Your wonderful thread of friendship,
Will glow to it's closing day.

W. C. T. U. ANNUAL ESSAY CONTEST

Realizing that one way to combat the use of alcoholic drink, is by teaching our youth the harmful effects it has on the human body, the W. C. T. U. of the Dominion is putting on an essay contest. The subject being "The Effect of Alcohol on the Human Body." For two years, 1929-1930 this contest has been taken up by the Sunday School children and in some places by Public and High School students, all over the Dominion with very satisfactory results.

The local union in Richmond Hill is anxious that all children should study this subject and literature suitable for the different grades will be gladly provided for the asking. The contest covers six lessons, and the subject matter provided is compiled by competent authority.

Last year there were about 250 local students wrote on this subject. The prizes offered by the local union amounted to twenty-five dollars and took the form of money, books, pictures, etc., which were much appreciated by those who were fortunate enough to be one of the winning contestants.

This year prizes will be offered as before and parents and friends are earnestly asked to co-operate in this work, to the extent of encouraging children to engage in this contest.

Further information may be secured from Mrs. A. E. Plewman, President; Miss Mildred Wright and Mrs. A. L. Phipps, superintendents of this department.
