Letters From The People

NOTE: The following letter relative to a communication which appeared in these columns last week was handed us by Reeve Lunau for publication.

Richmond Hill, Ont.
November 19, 1930

Reeve Jacob Lunau, Richmond Hill, Ont.

I wish to retract the publication of a letter inserted by me in the daily issue of the Toronto Daily Star on the 11th day of November last, and which again appeared in the Richmond Hill "Liberal" on the 13th day of this month, which referred to Reeve Jacob Lunau giving to me the hour of 4 o'clock in the afternoon of the 9th inst for the memorial service at the village of Richmond Hill, when the proper hour was 2 p. m.

This erroneous statement appeared on account of such information having been given to me over the telephone when I firmly believed I was conversing with Reeve Lunau, on account of the party so representing himself I now know from good and sufficient authority that I had not been conversing with Reeve Lunau, but with some apparent malignant impersonator.

I wish to apologize to Reeve Lunau for the incident which arose over such a mistake, through no fault of mine and regret any harm it may have done to the Reeve who has always been whole-hearted in the interests of the returned man.
