

Presentation To Miss I. Downey By Maple United Sunday School

A GRIST OF NEWSY ITEMS FROM MAPLE

A number of members and friends of the Maple United Church Sunday School met last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Keffer to honor and express appreciation for the services of Miss Iva Downey who has been a faithful and devoted teacher in the school and who leaves shortly for her new home in Brampton. Miss Downey was presented with a handsomely bound bible and the following address was read:

Dear Friends:—
We are met here to-night in this social gathering to pay our tribute to one of our number who has been a faithful and ardent scholar and teacher in our Sunday School for a number of years in the person of Miss Iva Downey, and language fails us to express our regret in losing such a splendid type of a teacher as Iva has been. By your sweet disposition and cheerful manner you have scattered sunshine wherever you went and have endeared yourself not only to those scholars who have come under your care from time to time, but also to the entire Sunday School. Your vocation as a public school teacher has also the more qualified you to teach the higher and profound truths which are only to be found in Holy Writ, that Book of all Books which we never tire of. We trust that in the days which are yet to come you will look back with pleasure to the pleasant hours you have spent in Maple Sunday School and we know it will give much joy to think you had some share in the building of characters and in moulding the lives and shaping the future destinies of the boys and girls who have come under your care, during those precious years that you have spent with them, and it is only Eternity alone can tell what good may have been accomplished during that time. We trust that the good work which has begun in Maple will be continued in the Community to which you are going and that they will enjoy the same kindly service as we have received during your sojourn with us. We are now going to ask you to accept this Bible as a token of the high esteem in which you are held by us. We want you to take it not for its intrinsic value, but for the spirit of love and good-will which prompted the gift, and when you peruse its contents and the blessed truths therein contained you will be the better enabled to perform your allotted task while yet it is day, and to render that service to your fellow creatures, that when called to that grand Sunday School above you will enjoy that eternal rest.

Signed on behalf of the Teachers, Officers and Members of Maple United Church Sunday School.
Miss Nellie Downey was also honored with a presentation from members of her class, the presentation being made by Miss Beatrice Mathewson.

The Rector and the Wardens of St. Stephen's Church appreciate the large attendance of the members and villagers at the Bazaar in the Parish Hall last Saturday evening. Almost $90. was realized from the sale of articles in the different booths and from the tea that was served by the ladies.

Impressive sermons were preached in the United Church on Sunday when Rev. Solomon Cleaver spoke in the morning and Rev. J. F. Reycraft occupied the pulpit in the evening. The choir rendered special music and was aided by members of Hope choir and by Miss Ruth Robinson and Mr. Stanley Pipher, of Markham, Miss Robinson sang a beautiful solo at each service.

The members of King A. Y. P. A. are putting on a humorous play of four acts, entitled, "The Young Country School'm'am," in the Community Hall on Wednesday, December 3rd at 8 p. m. Miss Marjory Scott, of Toronto will give an exhibition of fancy toe dancing.

Services at St. Stephen's Anglican Church are being conducted by the Rector at the following hours, 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month at 7 p. m., 2nd and 4th Sundays at 3 p. m., 5th Sunday at 3 p. m.

Quite a number of young people are in attendance at the winter classes in the Masonic and the Parish Halls. The classes started on Tuesday morning. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance at the fowl supper and the entertainment in connection with the United Church on Friday evening. Miss Mary Johnson is attending the convention of the Women's Institute in Toronto as a delegate from the local society.

Mr. H. C. Bailey's store window is full of Christmas toys and novelties reminding us that the festive season is drawing near.

Rev. A. S. Kerr preached in the North Parkdale United Church last Sunday evening.

The fire brigade was called out to help to fight a fire in J. Murray's bush on Monday afternoon. They arrived in time to quell the flames which were making considerable headway.

CARRVILLE

The weekly meeting of the Y.P.S. will be held in the church, Friday evening. Misses Ruth Bowen and Beatrice Hillier have charge of the program.

Next Sunday evening Rev. F. N. Bowes, of Richmond, Hill will occupy the pulpit. Service at 7 o'clock.

The annual Christmas Tree and concert in connection with Carrville Sunday School is planned to take place Wednesday, December 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bowen and Mrs. Diceman, of Teston, were Sunday visitors with Miss Annie Bowen and attended service here.

Miss Oliver of Athlone, is visiting this week with Miss Sadie Middleton, Mr. and Mrs. G.W. Keffer, Mr. Stuart Wark and Miss Olive Bovair attended anniversary services at Maple on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Middleton motored to Orillia last Friday to attend the funeral of their cousin Mrs. James Middleton.

Mrs. J. Clement and Mrs. Geo. Wood visited one day last week with Mrs. Thompson in Toronto.

We are very sorry to learn Mrs. Albert Middleton is very ill with erysipelas, and hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. Geo. Bradfield and three daughters, of Lansing, visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Delbrocco.

We are glad to report Mrs. Geo. Baker able to be up again, after several weeks intense suffering from pleurisy.

Presentation at Brown's Corners To Rev. S. Woods

A farewell banquet and presentation was tendered to Rev. Stuart Woods and Mrs. Woods, pastor of Brown's Corners and Box Grove congregations. The farewell gathering was held in Brown's Corners Church on Wednesday evening, November 19, and both congregations were well represented.

Reeve W. C. Gohn ably acted as chairman and called on a number of speakers who referred in glowing terms of the high regard held by members of the two churches for Rev. and Mrs. Woods and expressed regret at their departure. The splendid leadership which Rev. Woods had given, not only in the church but in the Sabbath School and other departments had been very inspiring and Mrs. Woods had been a faithful and devoted worker in all organizations and especially in the Women's Missionary Society where she will be greatly missed.

Among those who spoke were:—Mr. Fred Coakwell, Mr. Wm. Rodick, Mr. Wm. Brooke, Mr. James French, Mr. George B. Padget, Mr. R. L. Stiver, Mr. Ira Reesor, Mrs. Sadie Brooke, Mrs. R. L. Stiver, Mrs. Ira Reesor, Mr. Norman Reid, Mr. Ernest Walton, Mr. Gordon, Mr. James Thomson, and Mr. Douglas Hood.

Mr. George B. Padget read an address to Rev. and Mrs. Woods and Mr. Reesor presented them with a well filled purse as a token of the esteem of the people and in appreciation of their services. The address which was read is as follows:

Gormley, Nov. 19, 1930

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Woods.
It is painfully evident to these various congregations that a separation between us is to take place.

You and Mrs. Woods have become by your genial dispositions, endeared to the whole community. Coming to our midst as a total stranger, ushered to the pastorate of these various charges without their consent, you have made good. As a pastor you were fearless, never failing to uphold the truth as you interpreted it, and giving leadership to a worthy cause.

It is with a great deal of pleasure that we look back to the past three and one-half years while you have been pastor. Our growth has been phenomenal as a church and Sabbath School. The various organizations, most of which you and your good wife originated, are now in a flourishing condition. To one and all there comes a parting. We are pleased to say it is not of our choosing.

We are sure your sterling worth, your keen conception of duty, and your genial disposition will ever keep you in the foreground of your friends. We ask you in behalf of these two congregations to accept this purse as a token of our kindly feelings toward you and yours.

Wishing you all the good things that the future has in store for you.

Signed on behalf of the various organizations of your former congregations. Brown's Corners. George B. Padget, Chairman Board of Stewards; James French, Superintendent of Sunday School; Ernest W. Walton, President of Y.P.S. Mrs. R. L. Stiver, President W.M.S.

Box Grove, Ira S. Reesor, Chairman Board of Stewards; Fred Coakwell, Superintendent of Sunday School; Harold Coakwell, President of Y.P.S. Mrs. Ira Reesor, President of W.M.S. Mr. Woods replied fittingly and thanked the people for their expressions of esteem which was greatly appreciated not only for its material value but as a token of love which the people had given from the bottom of their hearts. He was very sorry that it had become necessary for him to sever his connections with these congregations, but nothing in his relationship with the people had caused this step. He only entertained feelings of warmth and love for the people of these congregations.

His work had been very successful but he was not vain enough to think that it had been through his efforts alone. Worthy pastors had preceded him and he was only carrying on with the work they had begun, bringing to fruition the seed they had sown, and sowing new seed. He held a bright outlook to the future and trusted that God would take care of these churches and his people.

Mrs. Woods thanked the people for their kindness and the meeting closed with God Save the King.

Young People's Society

The regular meeting of the Young People's Society of the United Church was held on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The speaker of the evening was Mr. Huyck, who gave a very inspiring and helpful address entitled, "My Pocket Library." We were also favoured by a duet by Misses Isabel Coulter and Jean Middleton. The meeting next Monday will be in charge of the Missionary Department and Mr. Melville Boyd, of Emmanuel College, Toronto, will be the speaker. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend this meeting.

PRESBYTERIAN YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY

The Young People's Society of the Presbyterian Church held their regular meeting on Monday evening. A good crowd attended. The Roll call was answered by giving the name of something to eat. After the usual business, games were played and a contest which was won by Miss Maud Buchanan. Refreshments were served and a good sing song brought an enjoyable evening to a close. Next Monday the meeting is in charge of the Literary committee. Everybody welcome.

FOWL SUPPER WELL ATTENDED

The fowl supper served by the Women's Association of the Presbyterian Church on Wednesday evening was well attended. Over three hundred sat down to supper and enjoyed a plentiful repast. Orchestra music was enjoyed during the supper hours.

MAN CAN'T SLEEP, GETS NERVOUS, HATES PEOPLE

"I could not sleep and got so nervous I hated everybody. Since taking Vinol, I can sleep 10 hours and feel full of pep all day."—Julius Bender.

For 30 years doctors have prescribed Vinol because it contains important mineral elements of iron, calcium and cod liver peptone. The very FIRST bottle brings sound sleep and a BIG appetite. Nervous, wornout people are surprised how QUICK Vinol gives new life and pep! Tastes delicious.
