

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

Oh, it's easy to fight in the cause of the right. When it's surely steadily winning; To nobly stand with a gallant band...

The regular monthly meeting of the local Branch W.I. will be held at the home of Mrs. A. C. Kennedy, Main St. on Thursday next, December 4th at 2.30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Whaley, were Toronto visitors last Wednesday. Mrs. N. Smith and daughter, of Toronto, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bennett.

The W. M. S. of Brown's Corners will hold their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. R. L. Stiver on Tuesday December 2nd.

Miss Nancy Spears has returned from the hospital and we hope for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. R. L. Stiver, Mrs. Armitage and Mrs. A. E. Milner attended the Women's Institute Convention held this week at the Royal York Hotel.

Mrs. J. L. Chant and Mrs. C. H. Stiver were Toronto visitors last week-end.

Misses Phyllis Farley, Margaret Lawrie, Annie and Margaret Patterson, Alma Maynard, Aileen Hood, Mildred Payne and Clara Wales, of Markham, were entertained at the home of their Sunday School teacher, Miss M. Sommerville on Tuesday evening last.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Stiver and Mr. and Mrs. John Snowball were Toronto visitors last week.

Miss Laura Brown has returned home after spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. J. Ash of Sharon.

Reeve Gohn and Deputy Reeves R. L. Stiver and G. Padgett are attending County Council this week.

Mr. A. H. Canning spent Thursday in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Dixon attended the Royal Winter Fair on Monday last.

Rev. and Mrs. Bobbers, of Toronto, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Bennett on Tuesday.

With the scent of the Christmas season in the air, we look for the usual events leading to the holiday season.

On Saturday, December 6th, afternoon and evening the ladies of St. Philip's Anglican Church are holding the annual bazaar and serving a fine supper as well.

The good reputation achieved by former events, make this one pleasantly anticipated. Kindly reserve the date.

Arrangements are also being made for the annual White Gift service held in connection with the Sunday School of Central United Church.

This interesting service will be held on December 14th at 2 p. m. in the church, when Rev. W. E. Wilson, past chairman of East Presbytery and actively connected with the King St. East Mission, will present the needs of this splendid worthwhile work.

It is anticipated that many will avail themselves of the opportunity this service presents to contribute liberally to this mission.

Food, clothing and money will be thankfully received. A cordial invitation is extended by the Sunday School executive for all to come and participate in this worth while service.

"Inasmuch as you have done it unto one of the least of these my Brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Mr. and Mrs. Barrington, one time residents of Unionville, now living in Toronto, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Harrington last week.

Miss Grace Harrington spent the week-end at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Camplin, and Mrs. LaRose were Toronto visitors on Tuesday.

Mr. Wm. A. Noble, while in Toronto last week called to see his cousin, Mr. A. H. Badgerow, who was 91 years old on August 20th last.

Watch for the announcement of the date of the annual oyster supper to be held at Brown's Corners United Church.

Miss Elizabeth French, of Wexford, spent the week-end at her home.

Miss Mary Miller, of Toronto, called on Mrs. M. Sommerville on Monday last.

Mrs. Andrew Grant, Jr., of Wexford called on friends in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and daughter and Mr. Wm. Miller, of Barrie, spent Sunday with Mrs. H. Miller.

Mrs. H. Hood visited relatives in Toronto last week-end.

Mrs. Robert Rodick has returned from a visit to Grand Valley and Bolton.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Urmy, of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Yeo, Little Britton, called on Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Noble on Sunday.

Ralph and Barbara Miller, of Toronto, are spending a few weeks with their grandmother, Mrs. H. Miller.

Y. P. S. INTERESTING MEETING A happy and profitable time was enjoyed by the members of the Y.P.S. of Central United Church, when they assembled at the parsonage last Monday for their monthly social evening.

The interesting program included, The Devotional Tone led by Mr. Eaton. Miss Doris Johnson, the Literary Convenor, read a paper giving some of the fine points of the Bible as a book worth reading, and the spicy November edition of the Ontonow Gazette interpreted by the Editor, Bert Dyke. Pictures were

Social and Personal

Santa Claus will visit Davies' Dry Goods Store on Saturday afternoon, December 13th. Watch next week's paper for time of arrival.

A radio is an ideal Christmas gift for every member of the family. See the "ads" in this issue.

Mrs. Grace Boynton, of Victoria Square, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Sanderson, Roseview Avenue.

Mrs. Schofield Battersby who has been spending the past couple of weeks with her mother, Mrs. W. J. Paris, returned to her home in Peterborough on Wednesday of this week.

Tickets are now on sale for the Board of Trade banquet on Wednesday, December 10th.

Mrs. A. Barnard, of Brampton, spent a few days the past week with her sister, Mrs. P. LeGue, Arnold St.

Miss Mary Dawson, of Parkhill and Mr. Alex. Dawson of the Customs Staff, Windsor, visited their sister, Mrs. L. W. Zuefelt over the week-end.

A subscription to the Home Paper makes an acceptable Christmas gift.

Cyprian Cardwell who has been seriously ill for the past few weeks, having undergone an operation on his arm and leg, is improving again and able to sit up in a wheel chair.

Mrs. I. D. Ramer and Mrs. J. A. Groskurth are attending the Women's Institute Convention held in the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, this week.

Mrs. W. E. Dickenson, stop 22, Edgar Avenue, has returned home from the hospital in Toronto and is making splendid progress towards recovery.

Mrs. R. S. Duncan, of Toronto, visited here during the week with Mrs. Wilfred Jones, Church Street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Woods spent Sunday with friends in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Little returned on Tuesday after spending a few days with friends in Buffalo.

There are many timely suggestions for Christmas gifts in the "ad" of Austin's Drug Store on this page.

There is still time to order your personal Christmas Greeting Cards at The Liberal Office.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Emmerson and family of Stouffville, visited Mr. and Mrs. D. McMillan over the week-end. Mrs. Emmerson stayed and nursed Miss Lillian Relf who suddenly took an attack of appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Downing who have lived here for the past two years, Mr. Downing being manager of the local branch of the Dominion Stores Limited, left last week for their new home in Dundas, where Mr. Downing has full charge of the branch store there.

The many friends of Mrs. D. McMillan, Yonge Street, will be pleased to know that she is making rapid progress after being confined to bed for the past eight weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Elson, of Guelph and Mrs. R. Gallagher, of Cookstown, were guests of Mrs. M. Elson, Roseview Avenue, on Saturday last.

Visitors at the McMillan Home on Sunday were, Mrs. J. Rose and daughter of Maple, Mr. and Mrs. D. Cameron, Aurora; Mr. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McMillan, of Markham.

Miss Elizabeth Moffat visited over the week-end with friends in Acton.

VETERANS PARADE TO ST. MARY'S CHURCH

The Vaughan Township branch of the Veterans of North York will parade to St. Mary's Church, Richmond Hill on Sunday evening next at 7 o'clock, when Comrade, Rev. L. C. Secrett will address the returned men.

The Ladies Aid of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church MARKHAM Annual BAZAAR and CHICKEN SUPPER

In the Assembly Rooms of the Church Tues., Dec. 2nd

Sacred CONCERT in Evening by Dr. Harvey Robb and Choir of 50 Voices of the Royal York Hotel Admission to Supper and Concert 50c

PHONE 188 THE JONES COAL CO. FOR COAL OR WOOD.

Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Robinson, Rumble Avenue, entertained a number of young people, the occasion being their son Arthur's twenty-first birthday. Games and guessing contests were enjoyed, after which a dainty buffet luncheon was served.

Among the guests were, Miss Lillian Hillier, Miss Audrey Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Robinson, and son Billy, of Toronto, and Mr. John Vanderburgh, of Langstaff.

Misses Grace and Elsie Paris left last week for Calgary, Alberta, to join their father, who has been there for some time. Mrs. Paris and Master Geoffrey will remain here until some time next year.

Following the evening service on Sunday, November 16th, the congregation of St. Mary's Church adjourned to the crypt of the church where the Rector on behalf of the congregation presented beautiful leather bound copies of the Hymnal suitably inscribed in gold, to Misses Grace and Elsie Paris.

Mr. F. J. Mansbridge, People's Warden, expressed the regret of the people on losing two such faithful workers and vouched for the good wishes of the congregation in the days that are to come. The Misses Paris left Richmond Hill on Wednesday, November 19th to join their father at their home in Calgary, Alberta.

About thirty young people gathered at the station to see them off and wish them God speed as they commenced their journey to their new home in Western Canada.

JUNIOR Y. P. SOCIETY

An afternoon tea, under the auspices of the older group of the Junior Young People's Society of the United Church, will be held at the home of Mrs. Albert Hill, Church Street on Saturday afternoon from three to six o'clock.

The members have been busy preparing Christmas gifts for children in the hospitals and these will be displayed that the mothers and others interested may have an opportunity of seeing them. There will be an offering in aid of The Junior Young People's Missionary Fund.

G. YEREX IN HORSESHOE SEMI-FINALS

Garfield Yerex, of Richmond Hill, who is competing in the Horseshoe Tournament at the Royal Winter Fair is to day playing in the semi-finals in the singles tournament.

BAZAAR AND SUPPER

A Bazaar and Supper under the auspices of the Women's Association will be held in the United Church School Room, Thursday (this) evening. Supper served from 5.30 p. m.

PUBLIC SCHOOL CONCERT

The annual school concert of the Richmond Hill Public School will be held in the Masonic Hall on Friday and Saturday, November 5th and 6th. Certificates will be presented to pupils who passed their entrance examinations this year, and those students are asked to be present on Friday evening. Remember the date of the concert, Friday and Saturday, Dec. 5th and 6th.

WON WITH HOGS AT WINTER FAIR

C. B. Boynton, of Markham Township was a prominent exhibitor at the Royal Winter Fair and captured several of the coveted awards in the Tamworth Hog classes.

IN MEMORIAM

HENDRY—In loving memory of our dear son and brother Robert Bruce Hendry, who passed away Dec. 1st, 1925.

December brings sad memories Of a loved one laid to rest; He will always be remembered By those who loved him best. His loving smiles and kindly ways, Are pleasant to recall; He always had a cheerful word, And was dearly loved by all. Sadly missed by Mother, Father, Sisters and Brothers.

DIED

BRILLINGER—At the residence of her sister, Mrs. Robert Thompson, of Langstaff, on Sunday, November 23, after a lingering illness, Hattie Brillinger, youngest daughter of the late Benjamin Brillinger.

Funeral was held from above address on Tuesday, at 3 o'clock. Interment followed at Heise Hill Cemetery.

DONER—At the residence of her nephew, J. H. Heise, Gormley, on Saturday, November 22, Catharine Stecker, widow of the late Sylvanus Doner, in her seventy-fifth year. The funeral was held from above address on Tuesday, at 1.30 p. m. Service was held in Dixon's Hill church.

BEASLEY'S BITTERS

Overcomes Ulcerated Stomach, Indigestion and Rheumatism. General Blood Builder. Mailed anywhere by MRS. T. VANCAMP, Toronto

HON. GEORGE S. HENRY

Minister of Highways for Ontario and member of the legislature for the riding of East York, prominently mentioned as the probable successor to Hon. G. H. Ferguson as premier of Ontario, should the present prime minister accept the post of High Commissioner in London.

Edgeley

The Westminster United Church Ladies Aid of Weston are presenting a play in the Edgeley Hall on December 4th at 8 p. m. entitled "The Ladies Aid on Strike." This is being given under the auspices of Edgeley Women's Institute. Come and enjoy a night of laughter.

Miss Mona Smith returned from the Western Hospital on Sunday and is recovering from her operation nicely.

Mrs. M. Brown spent a few days last week with her son Ernie, of Toronto; also attending the Royal Fair.

Mr. P. Bennett is doing nicely and we hope to have him home in our midst in the near future.

Master John Watson is spending a few days with his grandparents at Aurora.

Several of the Ladies around the corner spent Wednesday last at a quilting bee at the home of Mrs. Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Cairns, of Eaton Hall Farm visited on Monday night at the "Edgeley Farms."

Mrs. Johnston spent the week-end at the home of her mother, Mrs. Poole. Many from here are attending the Royal Fair.

Mr. L. Robb is again busy at his farm work after spending two weeks in the hunting district and returning home with a choice deer.

Several farmers being short of water are driving their cattle to the creek or hauling water for them.

Mr. D. Storey and Mr. W. Watson spent Wednesday afternoon at the Western hospital visiting the sick of this community.

Mrs. E. Stong is attending the Institute convention which is being held in the Royal York Hotel.

Road men are busy placing their snow fences along the highway, hoping to keep the road open during the winter months.

Friends and neighbours are glad to have with them Mrs. C. Wakefield.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson and family called on friends in Victoria Square on Thursday night last.

Edgeley Women's Institute will hold their regular meeting on Thursday, December 11th at the home of Mrs. J. Hoover at 2.30 p. m. Special Christmas music. All members are requested to be present.

EXPRESSES THANKS

Nelson Kerr wishes to express his thanks to his customers and friends for their kind and generous contributions after the loss of his threshing machine in the fire which destroyed the barn and contents of Mr. J. Reaman, Langstaff.

ST. MARY'S ANGLICAN CHURCH RICHMOND HILL

Advent Sunday, November 30th 8 a. m.—Holy Communion St. Andrew's Day, Corporate Communion for the members of the Women's Auxiliary. 11 a. m.—Morning Prayer and Litany 3 p. m.—Sunday School. 7 p. m.—Church Parade, of the Veterans of the Federal Riding of North York, Vaughan Association.

DANCING !!! ELGIN MILLS EVERY Wednesday Nite

ADMISSION Gents 50 cts. Ladies 25c Gilling's Orchestra OLDE TYME AND MODERN MUSIC REFRESHMENTS AT THE BOOTH

Christmas will soon be here.

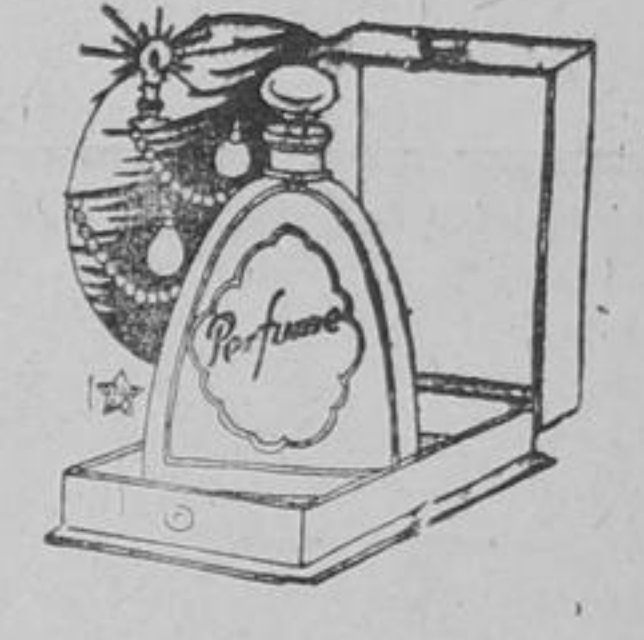

Make your Christmas Purchases Early. We have a large stock of a wide variety of goods suitable for every member of the family. We invite you to come in look around and see for yourself the quality and variety of goods we have to offer.

What a happy thought! Gift Stationery! And especially when it is priced so economically. Come in and see our unusual stock of fine quality stationery at bargain prices in fancy Christmas Boxes.

Nothing will please a man better than a box of real good cigars. Let us help you select just the kind that will suit him best.

Perfume is the perfect gift for the ladies. At popular prices we are offering our wide assortment. They are an excellent buy.

Colgates Toiletory, Seventeen Lines, the very newest in Gift Sets

Candy always pleases! Make it an extra gift! Come in and see our wonderful display of high-grade candies, and our unusually wide assortment of smart Christmas Boxes.

Smiles'n' Chuckles 60 cents a pound

YARLEYS OLD ENGLISH Lavender Products Sets in Gift Boxes 85 cents up

Christmas Cards A wide range to choose from

Christmas Seals and Stickers 110 in a pkg 10 cents

AUSTIN'S Drug Store RICHMOND HILL, ONT PHONE 33