MAPLE FIRE FIGHTERS ENJOYABLE BANQUET

Tribute Paid To Efficient Services Of Volunteer Brigade

The members of the Maple Fire Brigade with their wives and a few guests held an enjoyable banquet Wednesday evening in the Masonic Hall, Maple. A sumptuous chicken supper was served by the ladies of the St. Stephen's Anglican Church. The banquet was arranged by the members of the brigade and a very pleasant evening was spent.

Following the dinner, Mr. J. Carl Saigeon acted as toastmaster and short speeches were made by every lady and gentleman present. The toast to the Fire Brigade was proposed by J. A. Rose, chairman of the Village Commission, and was responded to by Chief Laver. The toast to the ladies was proposed by clerk and treasurer J. B. McLean and was responded to by Mrs. W. J. Johnson, Sr.

Glowing tribute was paid to the Maple Fire Brigade for its efficiency and for the good work since it was organized. It was pointed out that since its inception the brigade has brought in receipts of about $1700 for attending fires in the township.

This money all goes to the treasury of the Police Village, and only the donations go to the firemen's fund, and all members serve without remuneration.

Following the speeches, progressive euchre was enjoyed, the prize winners being: ladies' 1st, Mrs. W. J. Johnson Sr.; 2nd, Mrs. J. A. Rose; gents' 1st, George Cooner; 2nd, J. B. McLean. Useful prizes were given to the fortunate winners.

A. A. Eden New School Chairman

REQUISITION FOR SCHOOL PURPOSES REDUCED BY $1000.00 FOR 1933

At the first meeting of the Board of Education of Richmond Hill Village held Wednesday evening, Arthur A. Eden was unanimously elected chairman of the board for the coming year. Mr. Eden has been in business in Richmond Hill since 1913 and has been a member of the Board of Education for the past six years. He has always taken a deep interest in the affairs of the Board and his unanimous election to the chairmanship was a tribute to his record of service and evidence of the confidence of his fellow members. In accepting the office, Chairman Eden paid tribute to the services rendered by the retiring Chairman, T. H. Trench. He said that in the coming year the existing conditions demanded the practice of strict economy, but pointed out that the members should keep foremost in their minds the best interests of the education of the young people. "We must not lose sight of the fact," he said, "that our job is to maintain the efficiency in our schools."

Committees for the year were named as follows: Management, P. E. Angle, T. H. Trench, Mrs. O. L. Wright, Bert Cook; Property Committee, J. F. Atkinson, F. N. Hopper, Rev. L. C. Secrett, C. H. Sanderson; Finance Committee, J. E. Atkinson, A. D. Buchanan, F. S. Tyndall.

The report of the High School inspector was received and showed the school to be in a very satisfactory condition and the efficiency of the staff was commended.

Dr. Lillian Langstaff and Mrs. Lloyd A. Hill were appointed as representatives on the Library Board.

The estimates for the coming year were considered and it was finally decided to make the requisition for the coming year as follows: For public school purposes $8,500.00, and for High School purposes $4,500.00. Last year the requisition to the village was for $9,000 and $5,000 respectively. During the discussion it was pointed out that it is necessary for the Board to have a considerable surplus at the end of the calendar year, in order to have sufficient funds to carry on without borrowing until the grants are available.

The secretary reported that the average cost of education in Richmond Hill School in 1932 was 67.18 cents per pupil per day, as compared to 73.5 cents in 1931.

Members present were: Chairman A. A. Eden, Trustees T. H. Treach, Bert Cook, F. N. Hopper, Mrs. O. L. Wright, Rev. L. C. Secrett, F. S. Tyndall, J. F. Atkinson and P. E. Angle.

Mrs. J. P. Wilson of Richmond Hill, spoke in Sunday School on Sunday. She gave an excellent address on Frances Willard, founder of the W. C.T.U.

Misses Reva and Vera Nichols and Messrs Douglas Gee and Cecil Nichols motored to London on Sunday and visited friends there.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Klees and family visited the former's parents in Aurora on Saturday.

Rev. and Mrs. Percy Peacock had tea with Mrs. W. Brumwell on Wednesday of last week.

Miss Dorothy Oliver is spending her holidays with Miss Laura Gee.

Our Y.P.S. have entered in the debating series again this year. They engaged in their first debate on Wednesday evening, Jan. 25. They were opposed by Aurora. The subject "Resolved that the Socialization of all industry would be in the best interests of Canada." The affirmative was upheld by Aurora, while the negative was supported by Victoria Square. The debaters, Miss Vera Clark and Mr. Jack Babcock of Aurora and Miss Dorothy Valliere and Mr. Frank Brumwell for Victoria Square, proved to be an evenly matched quartet of debaters. Each side put up a very convincing argument, and the judges, Miss E. M. Bernie, Mr. Harry Kluck and Dr. Devins returned a decision for the affirmative.

Each season of the year brings its crop to be harvested on the farm. Messrs. Jarvis, Duncan, Sanderson, Valliere and Martin are harvesting the winter crops, these days—ice.

Miss Ester Rummey of Midland is visiting her brother Mr. D. Rummey.

The Y. P. S. enjoyed a skating party at the Unionville Arena on Saturday evening. Lunch was enjoyed by all at the home of the Misses Valliere after the skating.
