Mr. and Mrs. Glover, with their family, moved from Ravenshoe about twenty-five years ago to the farm now rented by Mr. Harold Morton, and which he vacated about ten years ago when his son Clarence, lately deceased, took it over.

Mr. Glover has been a successful farmer and a splendid neighbor, and his many friends join with his family in wishing him many happy returns and a continuance of his present good health.

The ladies of the W.M.S. held their annual quilting on Wednesday of last week. About forty-five ladies were present, and the quilts were finished in record time.

BUTTONVILLE

The meeting of the Brown's Corners Y.P.S. on Sunday last opened with the President, Norman Reid, presiding. The Hymn, "Take time to be Holy," was sung, Bruce Hooper read the Bible reading and Walter Craig read comments on the Bible reading. A reading on "The Citizen" was taken by Wm. Hood. The topic discussed was "Have Citizens any Responsibility for Unemployment?" Newton Brown, convener of Citizenship Committee took the chair. Charles Hooper spoke on the present unemployment problem. Newton Brown then led the discussion. The first question, Would you do away with machinery and go back to hand labor? created a lengthy discussion on other causes of depression, such as, older people who had jobs when times were good, still hold them, instead of giving them up to others who need them more. Some receive extra pay for overtime when another shift could be put on and others receive pay for two positions when there are others who need the work and are just as capable of doing it.

The Missionary Committee will have charge of the meeting on Sunday evening, Feb. 26, when there will be a varied program. The topic will be taken by Mrs. R. L. Stiver. Everyone is welcome to attend.
