UNITED CHURCH MEN'S CLUB MARK ANNIVERSARY

The services at Woodbridge United Church on Sunday last was conducted under the auspices of the Bachelors and Benedicts Club, an organization of men workers of the church formed thirty years ago by Rev. Dr. Gideon L. Powell, then the pastor in charge and for many years pastor of a large congregation at Pittsburg, Pa. It is an established fact that one Sunday each year in February is set apart for the Bachelors and Benedicts who have carried on without a break ever since its organization when a men's choir furnishes the musical service. On Sunday last, the choir was in charge of Melvin Clayton, veteran member of the choir, who joined it as a mere lad sixty years ago. To say the choir under direction of Mr. Clayton did exceptionally well is no exaggeration. Members of the originals of thirty years ago took part at the anniversary services on Sunday were, J. G. Whitmore, Ed. Warren, W. J. Blake, A. W. Farr, N. G. Wallace, Melvin Clayton, George White and Charles Hollingshead. However, the feature of the day's events was the return after nearly thirty years of the club's founder, Rev. Dr. Gideon L. Powell. The church was filled to the overflowing point to welcome their pastor of thirty years ago, and to say the least, it was a happy reunion at which Dr. Powell recalled incidents of the past, and delivered two important messages. The success of the occasion was most encouraging to Levi Elliott, who for many years has been the Club's President.
