RICHMOND HILL WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The regular meeting of the Women's Institute will be held Thursday p.m., March 9th, at the home of Mrs. R. S. Cooper, Centre Street West, at 3 p.m. Members will please respond to the roll call by giving "Bright Sayings of Children." Mrs. Bruce Davis (Carroll Langstaff), Toronto, will speak on Child Psychology. Mrs. Davis has been in charge of St. George School for Child Study, University of Toronto, and has given a great deal of time and thought to this subject. This will be an open meeting and mothers with young children are especially invited to attend. Members are urged to extend personal invitations and bring friends with them.

HOME AND SCHOOL CLUB

The Home and School Club held their regular meeting on Tuesday evening of this week in the Public School with a good attendance. Mr. Melecci demonstrated the method used in teaching music in class form and told how pupils can prepare for examinations at the Conservatory under this system, which all proved very interesting. He also stressed the point of practicing in the home from thirty to forty minutes a day. The same pupils showed a great improvement over his demonstration of last year. Eric Wilson played a violin solo with Mr. Buck, his teacher, accompanying him on the piano. Miss Shirley Hill delighted the audience with a reading. Muriel Barrow sang a solo. The prize for the room having the most parents present was given to Miss Corner's room.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE AND CONCERT

A very interesting treat is in store for those who attend the illustrated lecture and concert at the Presbyterian church next Monday evening. Dr. J. G. Inkster of Knox Presbyterian church, Toronto, will be the speaker and will give an illustrated talk on "Palestine." Dr. Inkster spent considerable time in the Holy Land and gathered a wealth of interesting information concerning this historic country. In addition to the lecture there will be numbers by the Knox church choir of 25 voices, and other musical numbers. A silver collection will be taken and the proceeds are in aid of the choir fund.

IRISH SUPPER, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 22

Remember the Irish Supper which will be held in the Sunday School room of the Presbyterian church, Wednesday, March 22nd.

GALA CARNIVAL OVERSHOE DANCE NEXT TUESDAY

"Prosperity" & "Old Man Depression" Will Race

The eyes of the world should be centred on Richmond Hill arena next Tuesday night, when "Prosperity" and "Old Man Depression" will have a race. This is only one of the many features of the gala ice carnival and dance to be held that night under the auspices of the Richmond Hill Trumpet Band.

There will be prizes for fancy and comic costumes, races and many novelty features. Bailey's Carnival Band of Toronto will supply music for skating and also for the "Overshoe Dance" which will follow.

Reeve J. A. Greene will officially open the event and Mr. Paul Mullette, of Musical Instruments Ltd., and two other prominent Toronto business men will act as judges. "Rusty" White will have charge of ice events.

Don't miss this big night of fun. The admission is the popular price of twenty-five cents.

Controller Simpson Speaker At Annual Church Banquet

Controller James Simpson was the speaker at the annual congregational supper of the Richmond Hill United Church held Wednesday evening. Controller Simpson delivered an interesting and inspiring appeal for the support of the League of Nations and all other agencies which are working towards the improvement of conditions throughout the world, and aiming at a better feeling between the different nations and peoples. Mr. Simpson who has represented Canada at a large number of world conferences was particularly well qualified to speak on the subject of "International Good Will" and his masterly oration was well received by the large gathering.

Mr. P. E. Angle acted as toastmaster and the following toasts were honored: "The Church" proposed by Dr. J. P. Wilson and responded to by the minister, Rev. G. E. Coulter, "Our Sister Churches" proposed by Councillor Alex. Little and responded to by Rev. L. Claude Secrett, rector of St. Mary's Anglican church, and Rev. David Marshall of the Presbyterian church, "The Ladies" proposed by Mr. Norman Anderson and responded to by Mrs. David Hill.

During the evening numbers were rendered by Miss Moore, elocutionist, and by a quartette composed of Messrs. Rand Phipps, W. L. Glass, Allan Duncan and Chester Salter. Mrs. O. L. Wright was accompanist for the quartette.

A vote of thanks to the speaker was extended on behalf of the gathering by Mr. James McLean.

HIGH SCHOOL SPORT NOTES

The final league game of the season was played on Tuesday, Feb. 28, between Newmarket and R.H.H.S. girls, at Newmarket.

The game was fast, and both teams played well. The final score was 31-24 in favour of Richmond Hill. The R.H.H.S. girls have been successful a second year in winning the North York Girls Basketball League Cup, and have not lost a game during the whole season. We congratulate them.

MAPLE

A very interesting service was held on Sunday evening in the United Church, when the installation of the officers of the W.M.S. for the ensuing year, and the re-affiliation of the C. G.I.T. took place. Rev. W. N. Chantler, of Toronto, preached a powerful sermon on the occasion.

The funeral of the late Mrs. W. Baillie took place to the Maple cemetery on Saturday afternoon after a service in St. Andrew's Church, at which Rev. C. H. Bowman officiated. Mr. Baillie and family have the sympathy of all in their bereavement.

Rev. Mr. Christie of Toronto will be the special preacher at a Rally of the Young People's Societies of Maple circuit, in the United Church on Sunday evening, March 12th.

Mrs. E. Hamilton of Toronto is visiting at the home of Mrs. T. Cousins.

The members of Hope United Church purpose holding an Irish Supper on Friday evening, March 17. Particulars of the program next week.

Mrs. C. Robeson was convener of the Missionary program at the Y.P.S. on Monday evening. A talk on Character was given by Mr. W. Hoiles and papers were read by Mrs. Caldwell and Miss Frances Mathewson. Instrumental and vocal numbers were given by the members.

CARRVILLE

The Y.P.S. held their meeting on Monday evening as usual. The Missionary Convener, Mrs. W. Keffer, supplied the young people with a first class program. Mr. Allie Forrest gave an interesting talk on home and foreign missions, which was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. Our attendance is gradually climbing up and up every week. Next week Miss Kathleen Walker is going to set a new standard in the name of programs, so lets all be there to see for ourselves.

Mrs. M. McCrone attended the reunion of the ex-pupils of Kimberley School in Toronto last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Plumbridge and daughter Jean vacated the fruit farm owned by Mr. Ross last week, and Mr. and Mrs. Dean and family of Newtonbrook moved into it.

There are a number of sick in our community. Mr. Walter Bone and Mr. Ernest Bone have been confined to their homes for over a week. Mrs. Hobday is also on the sick list.

Miss M. Reaman visited Mrs. Beythel in Toronto on Tuesday. She also visited Mr. Beythel, who is in the General Hospital, suffering with a broken leg.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE

An illustrated lecture will be given in the Presbyterian Church, Monday March 6th, by Rev. J. P. G. Inkster, D.D. of Knox Presbyterian Church, Toronto. The subject will be "Palestine."

TESTON

A large crowd attended the farm sale of Mr. Albert Malloy, held Tuesday, and prices obtained were fairly good considering the depression. Cows sold for from $48.00 to $69.00 and other stock and implements sold well. The farm, a good 100 acres, was up for sale but was not sold, the highest bid being $5,750.

Wes Clarkson has had the stone crusher on his farm this week, the operations being supervised by W. O. McDonald, township road superintendent.

Lenton Services commence next week, Rev. D. Davis giving a series of sermons of "This Season of Lent." The Young People are preparing to give their play "Farm Folks."

What to do with used razor blades is always a problem. Looks like a fine opportunity for unemployed sword swallowers.
