General News and Views

Mr. Dean of Newmarket shipped one fat cow and seven fat ewes to Toronto recently and he received $15.75, but his expenses were $9.00. Not a dollar a piece for each animal, after all the care and feed. What a shame.—Ex.

Two Toronto fishermen, Jack Alexander and James Sturton, fishing at Keswick over the week end, got 181 whitefish in five hours through the ice.

Brie Town Council used the parking knife at Monday evening's meeting and cut the tax rate for 1933 by 4.5 mills to 41 mills for public school supporters, and by 4.2 mills to 34.25 mills for separate school supporters.

SPEAKING OF ADVERTISEMENTS

Queer things sometimes get into print because human beings all make mistakes, says an exchange. Now and then a newspaper reporter writes copy carelessly. Here are a few of the "best bets" in such errors:

"Touches live wife, man hurled 35 feet."
"Wanted—Saleslady. Must be respectable until Christmas."
"Experienced sales people wanted. Male or female. No others need apply."

R. B. Coulter, of Caledon, decided his valuable Jersey cow was suffering from cold one night, so he covered her with a patch work quilt. But to her owner's surprise, when he went to his barn the next morning he found only one block of the quilt left. The cow next to the one covered had eaten almost all the covering.

Barrie town council has decided to have road work carried out on various streets by unemployed men receiving relief from the central relief committee.

In line with other municipalities the St. Marys town council has reduced the salaries of the town officials and employees by $25 to $250 a year.

Customers of the Oakville water and light commission will receive a present this summer in the form of a reduction in rates, it was announced recently.

NEWTONBROOK

Miss Annie Lever, Mrs. Knife and Mr. Galbraith are delegates from the United Church Sunday School to the Prohibition Union Convention to be held in the King Edward Hotel on Thursday and Friday, March 2nd and 3rd. Delegates will also attend from the W.M.S., Young People's and the church.

Mrs. Robert Smith, who underwent a minor operation last week is recovering slowly. We hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Oldham of Mt. Albert, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Goode, last Monday.

Rev. and Mrs. Halbert attended the funeral of Rev. Dr. J. A. Long, in Toronto last week.

Mrs. James Dean is entertaining the Woman's Association to-day (Thursday) to a St. Patrick's party.

Mrs. Adams, formerly of Winnipeg, gave a very fine address on "Ralph Connor" at the Y.P.S. meeting, last Monday night. The president, Mrs. James, conducted the business period and Mr. Harry McLean took charge of the remainder of the meeting. A duet by Misses Eleanor Moore and Margaret Shaw was very much enjoyed. There was an attendance of forty.

Miss Cora Goode, 1st Vice-President, will be in charge of the Y.P.S. meeting next Monday evening. Mrs. Metford of Toronto will give an illustrated address on "The Pilgrims Progress." All are cordially invited to attend.

The Girl's Mission Circle will hold a membership supper meeting next Wednesday evening, at 6:30 o'clock, at the parsonage. Will the members all try and be present and bring new members.

The W.M.S. intend holding a St. Patrick Tea on Wednesday, March 15th, at 3 p.m. Rev. W. J. Johnson, pastor of Eglinton United Church, will give his popular lecture on "Ireland." Keep this date open.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

WOULD HAVE THOSE RECEIVING RELIEF WORK FOR MUNICIPALITY

Editor Liberal,
Sir:—

Where is this question of Relief going to end? Where is it going to land the rest of us not on relief, and how are we going to stand it and how long? Now, Mr. Editor, if you can answer these questions, you're good.

It appears to me that we are headed for destruction just as long as we continue to hand out relief the way we are doing now. In Markham township last month the bill for Jan. alone was about $1300, it was a big item in Vaughan and right here in the aristocratic "Richmond Hill Village" I hear all sorts of stories of the large number on the relief list. I know many of the stories are exaggerated but it is nevertheless a fact that right in the village there are more people on direct relief than ever before.

I don't advocate the going ahead with big public works to give people work, because in this way the big guys get all the cream and after all only a small percentage goes to relieve those who are unemployed. But I do believe we should insist that those who receive relief should give work in return. That is, if a family receives $5.00 a week in relief, the head of that house, if he is an able bodied man, should give the town $5.00 worth of work computed at current labor rates. What will they do? Well we haven't much of a council if they can't find room for some improvement, and we might just as well be getting the work for the money we are paying out. Moreover, every one on relief worth his salt would rather do it that way, than be getting something for nothing.

I believe in a square deal for everybody but some things make me sick. I work hard for all I have or ever got, and I think others should do the same.

"WORKER"

WANTS CLEANER SIDEWALKS

Editor, The Liberal,
Sir:—

"Let-us-clean-up" hit the nail on the head last week when he drew attention to the condition of streets in Richmond Hill. Just take a walk some slushy day, and see how many of the householders care a hoot what people on the sidewalk have to go through. However, why give the pat on the back to Arnold Street, as I can't say that it's much better than any other.

A walk around town by the village caretaker about twice a season would settle the whole matter. If the sidewalk is not in proper condition the caretaker could just trip up the front steps, ring the door bell, tell Mr. Householder he has just so long to get it in proper condition or it will be done by some unemployed man and charged in his taxes. Just do this once or twice and it would be surprising how much better and cleaner our town would be. I know because I've had my door bell rung in other towns. Here apparently nobody cares, so I guess I'm as careless as those people on Arnold Street who like to praise themselves.

Snow Shoveller

AGAINST REPEAL OF SECTION 98

Editor, The Liberal,
Sir:—

While most Canadians are jealous of the right of free speech and lawful assembly, they at the same time are anxious to curb Red propaganda and prevent the spread in this country of the false political principles and debasing ideals of Soviet Russia, and most of us accordingly are disposed to be sympathetic with the attitude of parliament in declining to give support to the effort of James S. Woodsworth, leader of the C.C.F., to amend the criminal code by abolishing section 98, that part of the law which is designed to prevent advocacy of force, violence and intimidation to bring about changes in our democratic system of government. In prosperous times, with our population contented and happy in profitable employment, such a measure would probably be unnecessary, for few would want to listen to or pay heed to the false doctrines of the paid propagandists of a foreign power, but just now, with hundreds of thousands of Canadians out of work, over 1,200,000 on govern-

VICTORIA SQUARE

Winter may be almost at an end, but it still likes to give us the odd little surprise. If all reports are true, the spring season threatens to be rather showery in our vicinity.

There was a good attendance at Sabbath School last Sunday. Miss Mabel Boynton very capably addressed the school after the lesson period. Misses Ruth Caseley and Mildred Collard were appointed delegates to attend the convention of the Ontario Prohibition Union held in Toronto on March 2nd and 3rd.

We are pleased to report that Rev. W. Haig is making satisfactory progress toward recovery. His many friends are delighted and he is very grateful for all the kindness shown him.

The W.M.S. are joining with the circle of societies around the globe in the World Day of Prayer on Friday, March 3rd. The service will be held in the Sunday School room, at 2:30 p.m. Headford ladies are joining us and everyone in the community is cordially invited.

Miss Alice Hopper is absent from our gatherings these days. We hope she will soon be restored to her accustomed health.

Y.P.S. met as usual Sunday evening with a good attendance. Miss Ruth Caseley, Literary and Social Convenor, occupied the chair. Interesting verses from the Bible on the theme were given in response to the roll call. A good topic on "The Right Use of Time" was given by Miss Mabel Sanderson. Musical numbers by Aura Klinck and Violet Cripps, a reading by Myrtle Avison and a contest completed a well planned program.

The young people are gathering at the corner at 7 p.m. Friday, to journey to Pickering College, Newmarket, where the local Junior Farmers and Institute are taking part in the program competition. We hope our numbers will add to the program and give as much pleasure to the audience as we have had in our practice.

The regular meeting of the J.F. and J.W.I. will be postponed until Tuesday, March 14th.

The debate with Mt. Pisgah young people will be held on Wednesday, March 8th, at Mt. Pisgah.

Miss Pearl Dennis is the much-sought bride-to-be these days.

Simcoe County Council will send a protest to the Department of Marine at Ottawa claiming that the present radio license of $2.00 is excessive.

STYLE AND QUALITY

Are features of the garments produced by Richmond Tailors. Another outstanding feature is the moderate cost. You can have your clothes hand tailored here at a cost which in comparison to the quality of the product is sensationally low.

The best of quality, a wide range of materials to choose from, and at a cost within the reach of all are just some of the advantages you have by letting us look after your clothing requirements.

Next time you are considering anything in the line of clothing give us a call and we will be pleased to show you our goods without any obligation on your part.
