

YORK COUNTY J. F. A. & J. W. I. INTER-CLUB PROGRAM COMPETITION

At Pickering College on Friday evening, March 3rd, a most interesting program was conducted by the York County Rural Juniors.

Five clubs competed, representing the communities of Mt. Albert, Nobleton, Vellore, Victoria Square and Unionville. Each club had the privilege of contributing four numbers to the program.

Unionville was winner of Inter-Club Shield, scoring eight points for two firsts, and one second. Victoria Square was second, with seven points, for one first and two seconds.

The outstanding features of the evening were: the Boys' Chorus of twenty voices from Vellore, the male quartette from Unionville, and the address given by Jack Frisby of Victoria Square.

Mr. R. E. White, as chairman, expressed himself as more than pleased with the program, which was admitted to be in the nature of an experiment.

The success of the enterprise was demonstrated by the interest shown by the audience of some two hundred and fifty people, drawn from the five rural communities represented.

Miss Jessie Hill of Guelph and Mr. Edward Garrard, O.A.C., Guelph, were the judges of the competition. Their remarks and criticisms were most appreciated.

HEADFORD

Mrs. Hislop, one of the oldest residents of Headford, celebrated her eightieth birthday on Friday, the third of March.

After having dinner with her daughter, Mrs. R. Millen of Gormley, she was home again to receive callers in the afternoon.

Mrs. Hislop has lived in the neighborhood more than fifty years and has seen many changes.

Our best wishes go out to her at this time.

Master Murray Acreman entertained his school friends at his birthday party on Saturday afternoon, March the fourth.

VICTORIA SQUARE

Miss Dorothy Hart spent this week with Mrs. John Ough, Wellington Street, Aurora.

Miss Viola Avison is under the doctor's care. We hope that she will soon be restored to her accustomed health.

Don't despise the sucker. He is easy to fool because he is accustomed to associating with honest people.

WEEKLY NEWSY NOTES FROM THE AGINCOURT DISTRICT

"There is nothing so kingly as kindness And nothing so royal as truth." Selected.

Congratulations were extended to Mrs. John Elliott, one of Agincourt's most highly respected citizens, on Friday, March 3rd, the occasion being her 80th birthday. Formerly Mary Johnson, she was born near Malvern, and has lived in Scarborough all her life. Both she and her husband are descendants of pioneer stock, Mrs. Elliott's grandmother was the first white child born in Scarborough, while Mr. Elliott's grandmother was the first white woman married in the township. Since her marriage in 1880 by the late Rev. R. P. Mackay, she has lived in Agincourt. On Dec. 30th, 1930, she and her husband celebrated the golden anniversary of their wedding. Mrs. Elliott is a member of Knox United Church and a life member of the Women's Missionary Society. She is in splendid health and still active in church and community work. On her birthday she enjoyed a dinner party given in her honor by a daughter, Mrs. George Paterson, who was assisted during the dinner hour by Mrs. Walter Elliott and Miss Emily Elliott. The aggregate ages of the fifteen guests was 1013. Among them were Mrs. George M. Shipley of London, Mrs. Elliott's bridesmaid of over 52 years ago, and Mr. Elliott's sister, Mrs. Helen Hanlan, who was also at the wedding in 1880. Later in the day Mrs. Elliott entertained her family at an oyster supper.

She has a family of four; Miss Isabel, a missionary in Formosa; Mrs. George Paterson, Agincourt; Miss Emily at home and Walter of the firm J. Elliott and Son, Agincourt, also five grandchildren.

The World Day of Prayer service was largely attended in St. Timothy's Anglican Church last Friday afternoon by women of Agincourt, St. Andrew's, St. Jude's and L'Amoreux auxiliaries. It was a most impressive service from which one retired uplifted and inspired to nobler service. Mrs. G. S. Scovell presided, the soloists having been Mrs. George Tyrrell and Mrs. Fred Morgan, with Miss Margaret Morgan accompanist.

Many owners of Toronto homes are desirous of exchanging them for farms a few miles from Toronto. Conditions in the country are bad just now, yet how many farmers are willing to give up their land for city homes? What would they do in Toronto? Better stick to the ship in rough weather for it begins to look as if the storm is breaking.

"God, if Thy will be so, Enrich the time to come with smooth-faced peace, With smiling plenty and fair prosperous days." Shakespeare's King Richard III.

While entering Bert Kennedy's bush last Saturday, Murray Elliott, second son of Mr. Alex Elliott, caught himself on the fence and fell on an axe cutting the main artery and muscles of his left leg. He and his grandfather, Mr. J. F. Elliott, were on their way to get a tree for a tongue when the accident happened. Dr. C. D. Farquharson rendered first aid after which Murray was taken to East General Hospital. He was brought home on Monday evening and is resting comfortably and doing as well as can be expected. Murray has a host of friends here, who wish him a favorable recovery.

Several of our young people attended the Junior Farmers' meeting in Unionville on Monday evening. The guest speaker was Hon. Duncan Marshall, former Minister of Agriculture for Alberta. His articles on "A Land of Historic Homes and Herds" in The Ontario Farmer, a year or so ago, made a strong appeal to his readers. These were the result of a tour, he and his party of Canadians made through Great Britain, France and Holland in 1931, and they depict the romance of Old County agriculture, rich in the lore of the poet and husbandman.

Mrs. L. A. Kennedy gave a splendid address on "Faithfulness" at Knox Presbyterian Y.P.S. service on Sunday evening.

We are very sorry to report that there is no improvement in the condition of Miss Belle Nicol, who is seriously ill in Grace Hospital, Toronto.

The W.M.S. ladies of Knox United Church held a quilting in the Sunday School on Thursday. A good day's work was accomplished, four quilts having been done.

Miss Jean Leslie's pupils and friends were glad to see her able to return to school on Monday, after a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Mrs. H. J. McGirr and daughter Miss Beulah of Markham, also Mr. Willard Pringle spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. W. Kennedy.

Miss Margaret Morgan spent the week-end with friends in Toronto.

Mrs. George M. Shively, London, Mr. and Mrs. John Ludford, Mrs. Andrew Johnson with her two sons George and Jim of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. David Gregg, Cleveport, were guests with Mr. and Mrs. John Elliott on the latter's birthday, Friday, March 3rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gray motored to Tottenham on Tuesday of last week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Gray's uncle, Mr. John Potter.

"I pray you be not angry, hard or cold—with those grown old. Two things there be that torture me (how shall such pain in rhyming lines be told?): the sound of children crying bitterly; and words, like spears, hurled at the unarmed old.

They are so tired; no longer are they girt with youth's brave armour warding off Life's blows. They are defenceless; very swiftly hurt; one sharp word hurled, and lo! the heart's blood flows. They are so very tired; one never knows when they may slip into the arms of Death, and sob, like children lost and found again; and with their hurt, tear-laden breath, tell Death, the friend, how they've escaped from pain.

Oh sin, indeed to make the Old weary of life; they who have had their share of misery and strife. Oh, wrap your tenderness about them like a shawl, to comfort them and keep them from the cold. And let your love build up so high a wall—the spears of Life find not the unarmed old."

Wilhelmina Stitch.
