WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

the purchase of the Township Hall interesting program was given when no visible effort has been made to Mrs. D. A. MacKeracher was the change the unsightly appearance of guest speaker. Mrs. R. L. Stiver is the Auditorium. Public meetings, the president of this thriving organotherwise enjoyable, lose their attrac- ization. tiveness amid such drab surroundings. In event of complete renovation being impossible, at least, a coat of Kalsomine on the walls and a coat of paint on the floor, that could be put on by some of those on our unemployment list, would in a measure help to make it more pleasing to the eye. Artists and audience alike lose their enthusiasm and many a fine evening's entertainment suffers because of this unattractive setting. Some time ago the Junior Farmers Organization sponsored a movement taking care of this problem. What happened to hinder its accomplishment? The public has never failed yet to support worthwhile endeavours and surely with the co-operation of the council and the various organizations this problem could be successfully solved. Let us make our slogan "Clean up and paint up the Township Hall Auditorium, right now."

The Junior Farmers sponsored a "Buy and Barter" Seed Fair last Thursday at the co-operative meeting held in the Township Hall and among the exhibitors were, J. Forester with oats and barley to trade for alfalfa; Berkshire hogs and pedigreed horses Oscar Cox, sweet clover: L. A. Kennedy, peas and clover to trade for seed oats; Ken. Deacon, peas and oats to trade for goose wheat and sweet clover; Maurice Hamill, barley and oats. This "Buy and Barter" idea bids fair to become popular with prices so low and money scarce. It has been tried out successfully else- bridge, Detroit, Ralph of Richmond, where and under the able supervision of the Junior Farmers bids for popularity in this district. The April meeting of the Junior Farmers promises to be of interest when Edward Archibald, noted entertainer, with his trick dog, will be the guest artist. All interested are cordially invited to attend this meeting and are warned that it will commence promptly at 8:15 p.m. Remember the date, April 3rd, in the Township Hall. Many of the older friends in this vicinity will be pleased to learn of the celebration of their sixtieth wedding anniversary by Dr. and Mrs. Richard Harrison of Bad Axe. Michigan, on March 5th. This couple were both born in Pickering Township, Mrs. Harrison was Elizabeth Palmer. They were married in Toronto in 1873 and in 1878 went to Michigan along with his father, George Harrison, who had purchased some 800 acres of virgin land in Michigan, and who was well known for his importations of Shorthorn cattle, Cotswald sheep, from Canada to Michigan. Dr. Harrison is a graduate of Ontario Veterinary College and although eightyfive years of age, continues his practice in partnership with his son, Dr. Frank Harrison. Their six children were present at the celebration, Mrs. onto Conservatory of Music. Anna Watkins and Mrs. Leigh Cole-Bad Axe.
