Now that the season for hunting cobwebs has arrived, how about brushing some out of the Township Hall Auditorium, and making it an attractive place for the many pleasant events scheduled for the future, that will surely lose their attractiveness in such a dingy place. "VERSE FOR THE KIDDIES"
—The Day Before April—
The day before April,
Alone, alone,
I walked in the woods,
And sat on a stone,
I sat on a broad stone,
And sang to the birds,
The tune was God's making,
But I made the words.
—Mary Carolyn Davies.

Mrs. Proctor received very flattering recognition in Chicago.

Her work is most unusual. Two of our citizens had the privilege of a private view and were simply amazed at her work and feel that Richmond Hill should be justly proud of such a clever artist and by their presence at her exhibition show their appreciation.

A reproduction in the color section of the Star Weekly will be printed this following Sunday.

LOCAL BOWLERS FULLY EXONERATED
The following appeared in the Toronto Star, Thursday, March 23rd, and in referring to an incident of last year's bowling season is self-explanatory:
"On Wednesday, 28 September, 1932, The Toronto Daily Star described a regrettable occurrence in connection with the Loblaw Scotch doubles tournament, held under the auspices of the St. Matthew's Lawn Bowling Club. At the time, charges were made that certain scores had been tampered with, and, as a result, a committee consisting of Walter B. Cowan, C. C. Stenhouse and David S. McDougall of the Provincial Lawn Bowling Association of Ontario was appointed to investigate the charges.
At the request of Mr. A. E. Glass and Mr. A. A. Eden, The Toronto Star is pleased to point out that the committee met at Toronto and heard the evidence; and its findings, which were reported to and adopted by the Provincial Lawn Bowling Association of Ontario. It was found that neither Glass nor Eden had falsified the score card and that the charge against Mr. Glass of having instigated the deception had not been sustained and that he be exonerated from having taken any part in the falsifying of the score card in question. No charge was made against Mr. Eden."

An enterprising art dealer had five carved statues. He exhibited them together under the name "The Five Senses."
Soon he sold one of the statues and offered the remaining four as "The Four Seasons."

When Adam also left the shop, the lonely Eve was offered for sale as symbolizing "The Abandoned."
