The affirmative was ably sustained by Mr. Hannan, Toronto Educational Secretary United Farmers, and Mr. Parish, Toronto, Secretary Toronto Creamery Company, while the negative was equally defended by G. W. Shore and S. W. Mayhew, two local debaters. It was a battle royal of eloquence with many favorable points established by both sides making it difficult to decide, however, judges Rev. John McKenzie, J. W. Ellerby and J. H. Robson awarded the honors to the affirmative. Music at intervals with bandmaster Chappell directing was furnished by the Band.

ON BOARD THE EMPRESS OF BRITAIN ENTERING THE NEW YORK HARBOUR

We were somewhat amused when listening to a number of newspaper men as they were broadcasting from the Canadian Pacific Steamship as it was approaching the New York Harbor from Havana on which the famous London Author, George Bernard Shaw, was a passenger who is just completing a world's cruise which so far has taken more than four months. Mr. Shaw's stateroom was surrounded by reporters eager to interview him, and cameramen anxious to make pictures of him. Some of them considered many of his remarks as mere wise cracks while others regarded them as clever epigrams. However, the great Shaw characteristics were thoroughly discussed, analyzed and had the flavor of being a cleverly staged advertising stunt.
