BEAUTIFICATION AND CARE OF MEMORIAL PARK PLANNED

A well attended joint meeting of the Memorial Park Committee and the Horticultural Society was held in the Public Library on Wednesday night of last week with President G. D. McLean of the Horticultural Society presiding. It was planned to arrange for the beautification and care of the upper level of Memorial Park by installing a demonstrative bed of roses, peonies and other perennials to plant at intervals clumps of evergreens, shrubs, etc., and to lay cinder walks at different angles throughout the park, all leading to Memorial Tower. Frank Sillifant, landscape architect, will have charge of the work and will work in co-operation with Mrs. W. O. Duncan, Mrs. John Maynard, Miss Minnie Elliott and N. G. Wallace representing the Memorial committee, and the Horticultural Society executive composed of Dr. G. D. McLean, president, Miss Lillian McNeil, first vice-president, George Maxey, second vice-president and Major McKenzie, secretary-treasurer.

PET DOG STOLEN

Could you think of anything more despicable than a dog thief? What is there to profit by such a theft? Nothing unless it is to worry the owner. Last week a pedigreed Scotch terrier owned by Jack Howarth of the Robinson Dye Works, and valued highly by the family was stolen. A stranger whose description Chief W. A. Woollard is in possession of is suspected, and an arrest is likely to follow.

LATE MRS LEVINA DOHERTY TIGHE

Mrs. Tighe was a daughter of the late Michael and Elizabeth Fitzpatrick Doherty and was born in Toronto Gore. She was of Irish origin and pioneer stock, her grandparents being among the first settlers on the Gore Road. Her father, the late Michael Doherty was prominent in the affairs of Peel County and was Reeve of Toronto Gore for a number of years. Surviving are her husband, a daughter, five sisters, and a brother. They are, Mrs. William Kennedy, Nobleton, Mrs. Augustus Egan, Toronto Gore, Mrs. W. T. Tiehe, Mayfield, Mrs. Archie Smith in the West, and Miss Mamie on the homestead Lot 11, Concession 9, Toronto Gore with her brother Charles.

Y.P.S. ENDS SEASON'S ACTIVITIES

Monday night's meeting with the young people of the United Church was a special one and the last of the season, but for an occasional get-together for a picnic during the summer. In the absence of the president, Don McCallum, Miss Bertha Whitmore conducted the proceedings. A visit made by the Thistletown young people headed by the Pastor, Rev. Frank Sullivan, who addressed the meeting besides several visitors from the city who provided a program which included games by Miss Scully, and lantern slides with a descriptive talk by Miss A. Norris and Mr. J. Ray on the summer camp at Genechoe, Muskoka.

Honors are still coming to Woodbridge. This time it is the Women's Auxiliary of Christ Church who is crowned, the branch having won in a question contest in competition with branches of the Dominion.

Mrs. W. A. Woollard, wife of Chief Woollard, is reported as being in critical condition at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Burket, Toronto. Mrs. Woollard has been an invalid for many months, and a sympathetic community hopes for her recovery.

LATE WILLIAM HENRY WILEY

William Henry Wiley, aged 69, died at the home of his niece, Mrs. Elmer Dalziel, Claireville, on Monday morning, and was buried in St. John's Cemetery, Castlemore, on Thursday. Mr. Wiley was a son of the late William and Ann Bland Wiley, natives of Yorkshire, England, and was born on Lot 9, Concession 9, Toronto Gore, where he spent his early life and attended School Section No. 6. Later he went west and farmed for many years in Southern Manitoba, but because of a physical condition was forced to discontinue and come east. Mr. Wiley was in his boyhood regarded by schoolmates as a mechanical genius, spending most of his spare time inventing and making articles for house and barn, all of which helped to make life on the farm less burdensome. In politics Mr. Wiley was conservative and Anglican in religion. Surviving are three brothers, Newman retired in Woodbridge, George in Brampton, and Albert farming in Saskatchewan.
