MRS. P. WHITE RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT OF WOMEN'S INSTITUTE—FORTY TREES PLANTED IN PARK

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. M. Palmer on Wednesday of last week. The roll call was responded to with current events and was followed by the election of officers. Mrs. P. White was re-elected as president and Mrs. J. Manning secretary-treasurer. Mrs. F. P. Rumble gave a paper of Agriculture and Miss Minnie Line a piano solo. The committee then served dainty refreshments.

St. Stephen's W.A. held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. H. McFeeley last Thursday afternoon. Quite a number of ladies took part in the quilting and later were joined at tea by a number of gentlemen.

On Saturday over forty trees were planted in the park. These are soft Maples and in a short time will afford a good shade.

Mr. J. T. Saigron and Mr. C. Robeson are having their houses touched up by a fresh coat of paint.

The annual meeting of the Mission Band was held in St. Andrew's Church on Saturday when many of the mothers and other ladies of the congregation were entertained by the members. An interesting program was given and Miss Laidlaw of Toronto told a beautiful story to the children and Miss Walkington exhibited some curiosities from Japan, Manchuria, etc. Tea was then served by the members of the Band.

Rev. Thos. Wallace of Newtonville and his sister Mrs. Grainger of Toronto visited with friends in the village.

The regular meeting of the W.M.S. of St. Andrew's Church was held in the school room on Tuesday, May 9th, with the president in the chair. After the usual business, two quilts were quilted. After tea was served the meeting closed with prayer.

At the meeting of the Young People's Society on Monday evening the topic was taken by Miss Muriel Johnston, and the Scripture lesson was read by Art. Foster. Miss Minnie Line and Miss Margaret Rumble gave a piano duet, Miss Edna Hapgood a recitation and Mrs. Jennings a reading. Two vocal selections were given by the McDonald Brothers and Mr. Musselman was appointed manager of the baseball team.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Obham of Toronto visited friends in the village on Sunday.

Many from here plan to attend the annual Fair at Richmond Hill next Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Manning of Guelph spent Mothers' Day visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Manning.

Bailey's Clown Band will supply music and entertainment at the Fair.

KING CITY

Mother's Day services were conducted in all the local churches on Sunday.

A special Mother's Day program was followed at the United Church Sunday School on Sunday afternoon. Rev. Davis gave a talk to the children.

A memorial service will be conducted in Eversley Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening at 7:15 p.m. in memory of the late Rev. H. J. Ferguson of China who was a missionary there for many years.

Rev. David Marshall of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church will be the speaker. Special music will also be rendered.

Lantern slides on Northern Ontario and the Ferguson Highway were shown at the Y.P. meeting on Wednesday evening in the United Church. Miss Reeva Gambrell, missionary convenor, was in charge of the program. A vocal duet was sung by Reeva Gambrell and Mae Boog. A violin solo was rendered by Charlie Gates. Just three more weeks and the end of the contest. Will it be Whirlwinds or Hustlers?

A Mother's Day service was held on Sunday afternoon in Laskay United Church. Rev. Davis delivered an inspiring address. A mother and father choir gave two numbers which were much enjoyed.

TESTON

Mother's Day Services were held last Sunday and were very interesting. Superintendent E. Bowen was in charge of the program furnished and filled his place admirably. The special features were: the choir, a duet "That Wonderful Mother of Mine" by Masters George and Bruce Davis, readings by Misses Annie Walker and Louise Carson. Rev. Davis gave an address on Mother's Day. There was a very fair turnout of people for the occasion.

Missionary evening at Y.P.S. was an interesting service. Ed. Bowen read the lesson, E. J. Hitchcock read a very interesting letter from Rev. Netram, Missionary at Selroul, India, Misses H. Diesman and A. Walker sang a duet accompanied by Miss F. McCluskey and a solo by Douglas Henderson. In the business part Miss Annie Walker was elected Missionary Vice-President in place of Miss H. Carson who was unable to take the office. With a full executive the Y.P.S. will go ahead in its work.

Roy Bowen was appointed to look after the interests of baseball for the coming season. There will in all probability be a team in the schedule for the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Forster with Miss Bertie and Master Harold Forster visited with E. Hitchcock and A. McDonald Sunday.

We are glad to welcome Mrs. McCluskey and family to our Y.P.S. meetings again.

Miss Marie Castator has a position at Woodbridge.

Miss Laura McCluskey has returned to Toronto to a position there.

Mrs. Mood of Toronto, Mr. Moody and Noreen visited with Ella McLaughlin Sunday.

Mr. Jack Bateman of Toronto visited at McCluskey's for a few days and thinks there is no place like the country.
