Weekly Crop Report

Seeding operations, delayed by cold, wet weather for some time, are now general throughout the province. Fall wheat, alfalfa and clovers continue in excellent condition in most sections, while orchards look promising and spraying is being more carefully undertaken this year than for some years.

Strawberries appear to have wintered exceptionally well. Hatcheries report an increased business in baby chicks, and poultry flocks properly-handled have been one of the best paying propositions during the past season.

CARRVILLE

There was a good attendance at the Y.P. meeting on Monday evening. The meeting was in charge of Mr. Stuart Wark. The lesson was read by Miss Olive Bovair. The program consisted of a solo by Mr. Stuart Wark, reading by Mr. Lloyd Gane and an organ solo by Miss Ruth Bone. The meeting next Monday night is in the form of a social evening to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Walker, Elgin Mills.

Several residents of Carrville spent an enjoyable evening at a meeting at Richmond Hill, last Friday evening, of a new political party, the C.C.F. Facts from Hansard being read, which proved that some changes must be made if the common people are to survive.

Miss Carrie Hayter and Miss Eileen Saunders of Toronto spent the weekend at the home of Mr. A. Hayter.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Snider spent Sunday at her parents home at Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayhew of Toronto spent Sunday at Mr. J. Anderson's.

Mrs. L. Adkins and children of Toronto are visiting this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Vanderburg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stevenson visited with Miss A. Bone on Sunday.

Mr. P. O. Drury has had an operation on his eyes for a form of cataract. Owing to this he has handed in his resignation as choir leader.

Miss Ruth Bone, Miss Carrie Hayter, Miss Eileen Saunders and Mr. Walter Edwards called on Mr. and Mrs. J. Stevenson on Sunday.

Miss K. Wark visited at Mrs. Lunau's in Richmond Hill on Sunday.

MAN'S HEART STOPPED, STOMACH GAS CAUSE

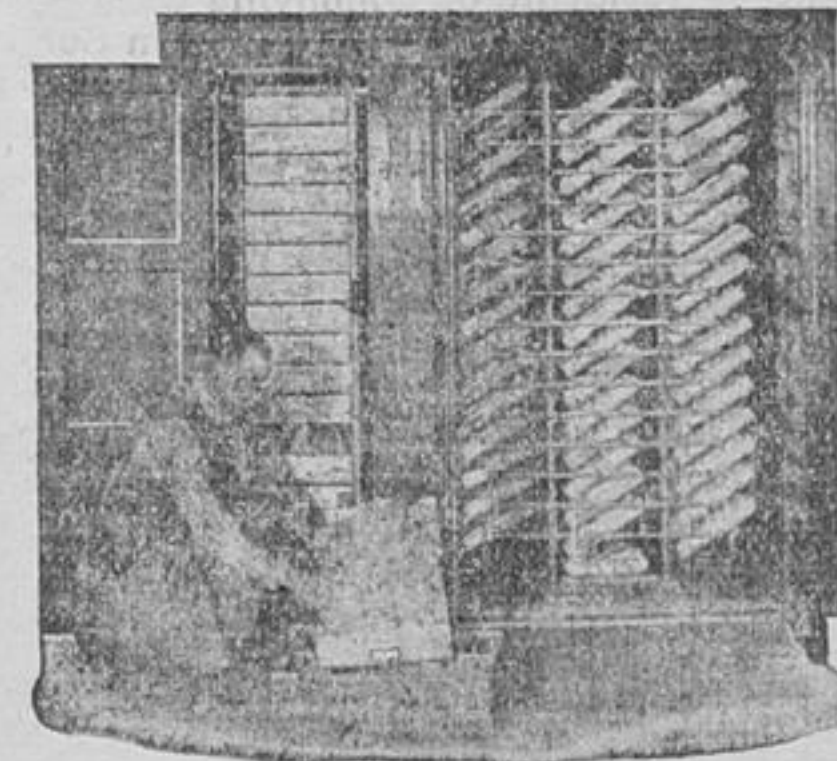

W. L. Adams was bloated so with gas that his heart often missed beats after eating. Adierika rid him of all gas, and now he eats anything and feels fine.
