SPECIAL SERVICES AT JEFFERSON

The meetings being held in the Public School here by Mr. D. Garner of the Faith Mission of Great Britain and Canada, continue to increase in attendance nightly. Bright congregational singing is a special feature of the services. Judging by the way people are attending, the meetings are being highly appreciated by the community. Friday night a large congregation is expected when three young men from Toronto will assist with the singing. These singers specialize in singing Negro Spirituals and draw a record crowd wherever they go. Plans are being made to hold two meetings a week for the children and to continue the meetings all next week.

C.G.I.T. Conference

The first North York Girls' Conference was held last week-end in the Richmond Hill United Church. It opened Friday evening and closed with an impressive Sunday morning service. After Mrs. Clark of Richmond Hill had welcomed the conference the officers were elected. Pres., Jean Middleton; Sec., Meeda Williams, Newmarket. The program of the evening consisted of games, reports of projects by representatives from the Newmarket, Thornhill and Maple groups. Marie Gunn of Maple gave an especially interesting account of her group's project—child-nursing. An inspirational address from Miss Crawe of Toronto brought the evening to a close.

On Saturday the morning session was held in a beautiful woodland setting. After the devotional exercises the girls divided into discussion groups led by Mrs. Trench and Miss Shaw on Vocations, Miss Hacking on Outdoor Activities, Miss Love on Projects, Miss Izzard on Books. In the afternoon a particularly interesting and instructive feature of the program was the tour of the Bedford Park greenhouses. A hike, games and pageant concluded the afternoon session. After supper served in Sunday School by several Richmond Hill mothers, Miss Jessie MacPherson, Toronto, led a sing-song. Slides of the Georgina Island Camp were shown by Miss Hacking, Aurora and of the Provincial C.G.I.T. camps by Miss MacPherson. The evening session closed with the beautiful candle-lighting ceremony. Representatives were present from Newmarket, Aurora, Maple, Victoria Square, Thornhill. The North York C.G.I.T. are very grateful to those who sponsored the conference; leaders, Mrs. Routley, Maple; Misses Hacking and Love, Aurora; Mrs. Clarke and Miss J. B. Smith, Richmond Hill; girls committee, Mildred Angle, Lolo Jones, May Plewman and Virginia Little.
