

WEEKLY NEWSY NOTES FROM THE AGINCOURT DISTRICT

Agincourt was saddened by the death of Miss Belle Nicol at the residence of her sister, Mrs. T. E. Robinson, 80 Belsize Drive, Toronto, on Friday, June 23rd, after a long illness. Miss Nicol, whose home was formerly on Lot 16, Con. 4, was loved and respected by all who knew her. Her passing is a great loss to the entire community.

She was an active member of Knox Presbyterian Church, a member of the choir, the Young People's Society, the Women's Missionary Society and belonged to Agincourt Branch E.Y.W.I.

The funeral service held in Knox Presbyterian Church on Monday afternoon was conducted by Dr. A. L. Burch, assisted by Rev. W. D. MacDonald.

Interment was made in Knox cemetery, Agincourt.

A brother, Mr. William Nicol, and two sisters, Mrs. T. E. Robinson, Toronto, and Mrs. Albert Cox, R.R. 3, Toronto, survive.

"I do believe that just the same sweet face, but glorified, is waiting in the place where we shall meet, if only I am counted worthy in that by and by."

George Klinge's "Recompense" Large congregations attended Knox United Anniversary Services last Sunday. Having been most impressive and helpful, they will linger long in memory.

The annual Garden Party, held on the church lawn, Tuesday evening, was also a success, both from standpoint of attendance and character of the entertainment.

Scarboro relatives and friends of Mrs. John Clark, Chelan, Sask. (nee Winnie Elliott of Agincourt) were shocked to receive word of her very sudden death on Friday evening, June 23rd.

For the past 22 years she had lived in the West, where she made a valuable contribution to the welfare of community life, in which she was deeply interested.

Her husband, one son Hugh M., and four grandchildren survive, also her mother, Mrs. Matthew Elliott, one brother Hugh Elliott and 4 sisters, Mrs. H. Harrington, Mrs. F. Yeamans, Mrs. L. A. Kennedy and Mrs. F. Mason.

Ladies' Gala Day, Thursday, June 22nd, on Agincourt Lawn Bowling Green, was a success in every way. The weather was fine and the attendance splendid. Players in good form came from Toronto, Newmarket, Willowdale, Markham and Highland Creek, and 9 greens were in use.

Handicapped. Little Betty returning from school one afternoon said: "Johnny Wilson's examination papers were so good that teacher keeps them on her desk to show visitors."
Asked about her own, she had to confess that they weren't good.
"But why aren't yours as good as Johnny's?" her mother asked. "You have the same opportunities."
"I know, mother," said Betty, "but Johnny Wilson comes from a very bright family."
—San Francisco Chronicle.

Tit for Tat. Nurse (suspiciously): "What have you been doing, Ellen?"
Ellen: "Rover's eaten my dolly's slippers, so I've been punishing him."
Nurse: "How?"
Ellen: "I've been to his kennel and dranked his milk."
—Lindsay Post
